1385.

Membrane 4—cont.

Licence to the said Master John de Buxyngham, John de Campden, Robert Perlee, William de Walworth, William de Worston, William Ryngheorne and Robert de Cheriton to release to the said bishop, in fee, all their interest in the manor of Munestok, and in the moity of the manor of Combe Byset, and also to enfeoff him of 20 messuages, 5 cottages, 18 virgates and 4 acres of land and 18s. of rent in Munestok, all held in chief, and grants licence to the said bishop, after seisin had thereof, to alienate the premises, together with the manors of Elynges and Wyndesoere, co. Hants, also held in chief, to Master Thomas Craule, warden, and the scholars of the college called 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre,' in frank almain. By p.s. [3685]*

Grant to the king's servant, Roger Marche, of all the goods and chattels of Henry Taillour of Oxenford, forfeited on account of his outlawry, and of the value of 10l.

By signet letter.

April 24. Sheen.

Grant, for their lives, to Simon Hillary, citizen of London, and Margaret his wife, of a tenement with forge (fabricatorio), upon the corner of the rent of the king's wardrobe, London, at the usual farm at which it has been heretofore taken, viz. 40s. yearly.

By signet letter.

Ratification, at the instance of Richard, earl of Arundel, and in consideration of the long possession by the prior and convent of Tortington, and of previous grants to the earl's father and himself by the late king and the king respectively, of the estate of the said prior and convent in a mansion with rents in the city of London, and in the advowson of St. Swithin's, Candelwykstrete, London, which Robert Agwylon, knight, by his will, proved and enrolled in the Husting court in the Guildhall on Monday after Ash Wednesday in the year 14 Edward I. bequeathed to the then prior and convent and their successors in perpetuity, and by virtue of which bequest they obtained and kept possession of all the tenements and rents which were the said Robert's at the time of his death, except a place called 'area tentorium,' until the year 41 Edward III. when at the king's suit it was found by inquisition of John Lovekyn, mayor and escheator in the city, that the said Robert bequeathed the premises contrary to the statute of mortmain, and, on the prior's default in appearing to answer at the second hearing, the premises were by judgment of the court taken into the late king's hands. Subsequently the late king gave them to Richard, late earl of Arundel, and granted to him licence to alienate them to the said prior and convent in mortmain, but he dying before doing so the present earl entered on the premises as his son and heir, to whom the king has granted a similar licence and who has accordingly alienated the same, the prior and convent being now seised thereof.

By p.s. [3673] and for 40s. paid in the hanaper.

May 24. Westminster.

Licence, upon information that the possessions of the hospital of St. John Baptist near Trym in Ireland, are almost destroyed by the king's enemies, for the prior and convent thereof to appropriate in mortmain the advowson of a moiety of the church of Tyllaghnug, of the yearly value of 6 marks, the other moiety whereof they already hold to their own uses, and to acquire in mortmain lands and tenements not held in chief, to the yearly value of 10 marks.

By p.s. and for 40s. paid in the hanaper.

June 20. Westminster.

Grant to Thomas Bacton of London, fishmonger, of the custody, together with the marriage of the heir, of the lands in Aldreseye and Henlowe, co. Bedford, late of Walter Herwile, tenant in chief, during the minority of Richard his son and heir, paying 5 marks therefor at the Receipt of the Exchequer.

By bill of treasurer.

* The roll being defaced, the privy seal supplies deficiencies.