1385.

Membrane 31—cont.

that the latter should lose the same by default, and that afterwards on the suggestion of the said John that divers other lands were parcel of the lordship the king granted them to him for life by letters patent; the said earl now petitioning the king, alleging that he and his ancestors from the time of the conquest of Wales, have held the lordship of Bromfeld in Wales, and the towns of Llany, Burton, Huncley, and a moiety of Trefhalyne, as parcel of Bromfeld, by grant of Edward I, that they have never attended (intendisse) the said court and county of Flint, and that Bromfeld is not, nor any part of it, within Hope Dale or the said county, the king hereby revokes the said letters patent so far as the said towns of Llany, Burton, Huncley and a moiety of Trefhalyne are concerned, and quashes the proceedings and decree aforesaid, confirming the estate and possession of the said earl and his heirs therein.

By p.s. [3739.]

Sept. 25. Easthampsted Manor.

Ratification of the estate of John Swyndon, chaplain, as treasurer of the church of St. Patrick, Dublin.

By signet letter.

Sept. 25. Westminster.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire Stephen Rommylove, for long service to the king's father and the king, of 20 marks yearly at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

Oct. 3. Westminster.

Presentation of Robert Calle to the chapel of Borwardesley, in the diocese of Hereford, void by the resignation of James de Billyngford, and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Wenlock being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Sept. 28. Windsor Castle.

Grant, for life, to John Sauvage of the office of being keeper of the king's pavilions, in the room of John Warde, deceased.

By signet letter.

Oct. 5. Westminster.

Grant to Matthew Chenyn, Lombard, attorney of certain merchants, who has lent the king 1600l., that he shall take the moiety of the custom and subsidy in the port of Southampton until he is paid the said sum and 600l. in addition, as attorney of certain merchants of Catalonia and Aragon, in part payment of a large sum heretofore claimed by them as restitution for goods taken by the king's liege in the late reign; the said Matthew is to have in his keeping the one piece of the 'coket' seal until he is repaid as above, and for greater security he has received pledges of the king's jewels, according to indenture made between him and the treasurer and chamberlains and keeper of the said jewels, to keep where he will and to dispose of if this assignment is repealed. French. By C.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors of customs and subsidies in the port of Southampton.

Presentation of William de Melehebourne, parson of Althorp, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Church, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with John de Scarle.

Pardon, for one mark paid in the hanaper by William de Canouns, to John Risby aliis Ryscyby, the said William, Thomas de Thorpe and John Chaumberlyen, chaplain, for acquiring in fee simple from John Stywckole, tenant in chief, without licence, and entering on 39½ acres of land, called 'le Hent,' in Kyngsrypton, co. Huntingdon, and restitution of the same to them as acquired, and licence for them, after seisin had, to alienate the same to John Colles, of Abbotesrypton, and Agnes, his wife, and the heirs of John Colles.

Presentation of Thomas Baret, vicar of Hecham, in the diocese of Norwich, to the church of Willesford, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the