1386.

MEMBRANE 21.

Feb. 13. Westminster. Licence for John Bannebury of Gloucester to buy in the counties of Gloucester and Worcester and ship in any ports to any places in friendship with the king 300 quarters of corn, notwithstanding any ordinance to the contrary.

Feb. 10. Windsor. Grant, for the term of their lives, to Ralph and John sons of William de Riscbeby the younger, who is willing that they should have it, and who has surrendered his grant thereof, of the custody of the forests of Waweberge and Sappeley. By signet letter.

Feb. 27. Westminster. Pardon to John Botesham, citizen and goldsmith of London, for all felonies and trespasses except treasons, murders, rapes and common larcenies, but this pardon is not to extend to any felony perpetrated since St. Matthias the Apostle, 8 Richard II. By p.s.

March 9. Westminster. Presentation of John Thorpe to the church of West Rasin in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Holy Trinity, York, being in his hands on account of the war with France. By p.s.

March 14. Westminster. Revocation of protection with clause volumus for one year, granted 27 May last to Philip Picworth, knight, as going to Scotland on the king's service with Henry de Percy son of the earl of Northumberland, warden of Berwick-upon-Tweed, because the said Henry has been relieved of the wardenship.

1385.

Dec. 9. Westminster. Grant, for life, to Thomas Melbourn, esquire, that he be one of the king's serjeants-at-arms, receiving 12d. daily for his wages from the issues of the county of York, on his surrender of letters patent dated 20 August last. By p.s.

1386.

March 30. Westminster. Revocation of letters patent directed to sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs and other the king's ministers to arrest and bring before the Council all persons found impugning by papal provisions, inhibitions, citations, etc. the king's title to the prebend of Cropperye in the cathedral church of Lincoln and disturbing the possession thereof by Simon Bate.

Jan. 11. Westminster. Grant, for life, to John Marche, one of the king's heralds, Noreys king-at-arms, of 7½d. daily for his wages as well as his robes pertaining to his estate, to be paid by the keeper of the wardrobe within the household, both whilst he remains within the same and when he is abroad on the king's business, notwithstanding that hertofore no herald has been accustomed to receive any wages in the king's household, yet this grant is not to be a precedent. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the keeper of the wardrobe.