Membrane 16—cont.

Westminster.

May 14.

Acknowledgment that the king owes £500 to Reginald Crele, Gerard Locumyn, Humphrey Pyndel, and Aaron de Marinis, merchants of Genoa, for money lent; and grant, with the assent of the Council, that the said merchants receive the king's subsidy from all wools and wool-fells transported by them in the port of Southampton in 'taritas' or other Genoese ships to foreign parts, until repaid that sum.
