1386.

Presentation of Thomas Bradle, chaplain, to the church of Langeleby in the diocese of Salisbury.

Appointment of Thomas Gowere, purveyor of the Tower of London, to take sufficient masons, carpenters and other workmen for the repair and array of the Tower and set them to work thereon, and also to provide stone, timber, tiles, lathe, etc. and carriage therefor, with power to imprison contrariants.

Revocation of protection with clause volumus for a certain time granted to Richard Weton, chaplain, as going to Scotland on the king's service in the company of Thomas Talbot, knight, captain of Berwick, because he tarries in the county of York on his own affairs.

Presentation of Richard Ferroure to the church of Great Billyngg, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of Alan de Stokes.

Grant to William de Corby and Agnes his wife, the king's nurse, in survivorship, of the manor and town of Little Weldon, and a tenement in Great Weldon, formerly John Jacob's, at the yearly rent of 7 marks; on his surrender of letters patent dated 28 August, 6 Richard II, appointing him to the custody of the premises and of the town of Rokyngham for a yearly farm of 20l. By p.s.

Exemption, for life, of William Beyford from being put on assizes, juries, attaints, inquests or recognisances, and from being made mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, justice of the peace or of labourers, collector, controller or assessor of tenths, fifteenths, taxes or subsidies, arrayer of men-at-arms, hobelers or archers, or other minister, bailiff or officer of the king, against his will. By signet letter.

Licence for Baldewych Pargia and Simon de Guynegiis to exchange with other merchants in amity with the king and living beyond seas merchandise and money to the value of 2,000 marks once or twice, notwithstanding ordinances to the contrary, provided they do not transport gold or silver bullion beyond the realm, under pain of forfeiting this licence.

Appointment, during pleasure, of the king's seaman Richard Moneye, as master of the king's Spanish ship, whereof John Ermyyn is now master. By C.

Whereas the king lately appointed his esquire John Moisy to the custody of the alien priory of Avebury, co. Wilts, for a certain yearly farm, and, on information of divers wastes and defects therein in the time of former farmers, appointed certain persons to enquire and certify touching the same, and whereas the said John has petitioned that as by the said inquisition it has been found that the priory has suffered damage to the value of 10l. 6d., the king would order that sum to be delivered to him for the purpose of repairing it, the king hereby grants whatever pertains to him or can in his name be recovered of that amount for that purpose, and although a higher farm for the priory may be offered the said John is to continue farmer during the war with France at his present rate. By signet letter.