said William, John de Hemyngeford, John Lincolne, John Rokesdon, John Lord and John Brerele; and further licence for the said prior and convent to enter upon a messuage and three tofts in Huntyngdon, bequeathed by William de Hemyngeford of Huntyngdon, the elder, in his will, according to the custom of that town to Beatrice his daughter, and her heirs tail, with remainder to William her brother, and his heirs tail, with final remainder to the said prior and convent and their successors, both the said Beatrice and William having died without heir tail, and the premises being of the yearly value of 61s. 2d., as appears by divers inquisitions of Thomas More of Dalsham, escheator in the county of Huntingdon, in full satisfaction of 10l. of land and rent which they had licence of the late king to acquire in mortmain.
