11 RICHARD II.—Part I.

MEMORANDA 36.

June 24. Westminster. Licence, for 50s. paid to the king by the abbot and convent of Ramsey, for the alienation in mortmain by John de Lincoln, parson of Craunfeld, William de Overton, parson of Wystowe, and John de Welle, chaplain, of eight messuages, one toft and eighteen acres of land in Ramsey, Byry and Hetumgrove, not held in chief, of the yearly value of 10s., as found by inquisition of Thomas More of Balsham, escheator in the county of Huntingdon, to the said abbot and convent for finding certain tapers to burn at the tomb of St. Ivo in that abbey church according to the ordinance of the said grantors.

June 24. Westminster. Pardon, for 20 marks paid to the king by Richard Talbot of Goderichcastell, knight, to Geoffrey, vicar of Longehope, Thomas de Brugge, William de Aston Yngeyn, John de la Forde, John Pertone, Fulk Sprynghose, Thomas Gamge and John Borley of their trespass in acquiring in fee from Gilbert Talbot of Godrichcastell, knight, deceased, and entering upon, without licence, the manor of Wormelow and hundred of Irchenfeld in the county of Hereford or March of Wales, held in chief, and licence for them to enfeoff the said Richard of the premises.

June 25. Westminster. Inspeccimus and confirmation, in favour of the prior and sisters of the order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem at Boeland, of a charter, dated at Westminster, 28 September, 13 Henry III., by the hand of Ralph, bishop of Chichester, chancellor, being a grant to them that they may take every week in the king's park of Pertone, three cartloads of underwood de spinis, utw o et arubic for their hearth, and as they can more conveniently take some in summer than in winter, they may from Easter to St. Peter ad Vincula take as many cartloads as for the whole year.

By fine of 13s. 4d.

June 25. Westminster. Pardon, at the supplication of the lord of Beaumont, to Thomas de Corley of Coventry, girdler, for the death of Roger Fairfield, killed on Sunday in the feast of St. John ante Portam Latinam, 9 Richard II.

By p.s.

June 29. Westminster. Presentation of Thomas Pype, chaplain, to the church of Todenham in the diocese of Worcester void by his resignation (sic), and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of Westminster, now void, being in his hands.

June 25. Westminster. Pardon, for 20l. paid to the king by Robert Knolles, of the trespass of John de Nevill of Raby in releasing, without licence, to the said Robert and Constance his wife, their heirs and assigns (to whom by licence of the late king he had granted the manor of Houton, co. Norfolk, for life in survivorship and to their assigns for half a year after their death), his whole interest in the said manor, and grant that the said Robert may
