11 RICHARD II.—Part I.

Membrane 8—cont.

Nov. 14.
Westminster. Confirmation to William Hoechepount, chaplain of a chantry in the church of St. Clement, for founding which John Charteney, late citizen of London, by his will, proved and enrolled in the Guildhall according to the custom of the city, bequeathed his tenements in the parish of St. Clement’s and 6 marks of yearly rent issuing from tenements in the parish of St. Edmund the Martyr, in Lumbardstrete’s, lately John Hablount’s, but the words of the will were not effectual because no chaplain nor parson was then there held to be capable of the interest, of the chantry, tenements and rent aforesaid, and to his successors.
