Membrane 35—cont.

- June 18. Simon Hemmyng, for not appearing to answer the abbot of St. Westminster. Benet, Hulme, touching a trespass. Norfolk.
- Jan. 29. Revocation of letters patent granting to the king's servant, Thomas Westminster. Trewyn, the offices of 'wodeward' of Cumnorewode and Baggeleghwode for life; upon the petition of the abbot of Abyndon alleging injustice, as the inquisition upon which the said grant was based was not taken in the county of Berks, but in the county of Oxford at Oxford castle before John, prior of St. Frideswide's, Oxford, and John Dautry, clerk, who were appointed to survey and extend the king's possessions in the county of Berks, and who returned that the king had the gift of those offices; whereas he, the said abbot and his predecessors from time immemorial had appointed their own servants and officers thereto without interference of the king, until the said letters issued in favour of the said Thomas, who having been summoned at the sheriff's instance by Robert de Wyghtham and Robert Cartere to show cause against this revocation, failed to appear, whereupon after mature consideration of the premises, the king's justices, serjeants-at-law and others skilled [in the law] of the king's council decided that the above inquisition was insufficient and not consonant to the law, because taken in a county other than that in which the said offices were, and that this revocation should issue.
- Jan. 29. Presentation of Thomas Fenyr, vicar of Adyngton, in the diocese of Westminster. Winchester, to the church of Brynkhill, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the land and heir of William Bardolf, knight, tenant in chief, being in his custody; on an exchange with John Fox of Bilneye.
- Feb. 3. Pardon to Augustine, son of Augustine Kenebrok of Oreford, who on Westminster. being found guilty before John de Cavendissh and John de Lakynghithe, justices of gaol delivery at Melton, of having killed John Burrich of Kirketon at Kirketon on Monday after Palm Sunday, 47 Edward III, and robbed him of his goods to the value of 10*l.*, pleaded his clergy, but the justices doubting whether he was a clerk or no, remanded him; and pardon of any consequent outlawry provided he abide his trial if prosecuted. By p.s.
- Feb. 6. Presentation of John Noude, parson of Highclere, in the diocese of Westminster. Winchester, to the vicarage of Wedonbek, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Okebourn being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with John Bugg.
