1388.

Membrane 13—cont.

April 28. Pardon to John, son of William de Bredkirk alias John de Bredkirk, son of William de Bredkirk, for the death of Richard de Norton, chaplain, killed on Monday before All Saints, 10 Richard II. By p.s.

May 15. Presentation of John Adcock of Bradewell, chaplain, to the church of Westminster. Silverestoft in the diocese of Lincoln.

May 12. Inspeccimus and confirmation to John Cruys, John Breeden, Robert Westminster. Euree and Thomas de Everdon, clerk, of letters patent under the great seal of Ireland dated at Trym, 12 February, 9 Richard II, testc Philip de Courtenay, the king’s lieutenant in Ireland, being a grant and sale to them, for 100 marks paid to the king in the hamaper of his Chancery in Ireland, viz. to John Blyceley, clerk thereof, in aid of its government and the maintenance of his wars there in this urgent time of need, of the following customs, viz. the custody of the lands in the county of Meath, late of Thomas Chauncir and Thomas Nugent, that are or should be in the king’s hands by reason of the minority of John and Thomas, their respective sons and heirs, with the issues and profits thereof not yet satisfied at the Exchequer, from the date of their deaths, with suits of court, rents, services of free tenants, liberties, customs, advowsons, knights’ fees, wardships, marriages, escheats, and reliefs thereto belonging, together with the reversion of a third of all the said Thomas Chauncir’s lands held in dower by Katherine his wife, as well as all reversions belonging to the said John his son, until the full age of the said John and Thomas or of their heirs, if they die before full age, together with their marriages; the custody of two parts of all the lands in the same county, late of William Lynam, which by his death and by reason of the minority of Hugh his son, came into the king’s hands and were granted to the said Thomas Chauncir during Hugh’s minority, and have been reseised, with the issues from the time of such reseisin, and suits of court, etc. as above, together with the reversion of a third of all the said William’s lands held in dower by Mariott his wife, until the full age of the said Hugh, or of his heir, if he die before full age, together with their marriages; and the custody of a third of the lands in the same county, late of Simon Cusaak, knight, deceased, that are or should be in the king’s hands by the death of the said Simon and by reason of the minority of Margaret, one of his daughters and heirs, with the issues and profits from the date of his death, suits of courts, etc. as above, together with the reversion of another third of the said Simon’s lands, held in dower by Nesta his wife, with all other reversions belonging to his said daughter, until the full age of the said Margaret or her successive heirs.

For 10s. paid in the hamaper.

March 27. Pardon, out of regard for Good Friday, to Richard, son of William de Westminster. Gleet, for aiding and abetting the death of Richard de Bellerby, bastard, killed at Prestecote on Wednesday, the Conversion of St. Paul, 9 Richard II. By p.s. [1718.]

May 18. Licence, upon information by Roger de Clifford, knight, that Thomas Westminster. de Clifford, knight, is too infirm to execute in person the offices of escheator and clerk of the market of the king’s household in Ireland, for the latter to execute the same by a sufficient deputy until Michaelmas, notwithstanding the condition in the grant thereof by letters patent dated 6 March, 6 Richard II, requiring his personal attendance.