Hopedale in Wales, and the yearly rent of 7l. 6s. 8d. from the issues of the lands of Overmersh, all which the said earl now holds of the king's gift, to the yearly value of 200L., also the manors of Blakedon, Ludford and Staundon by Donstersdon, co. Somerset, the manors of Bovyrtracy, Northlycu, Holdcsworthy, Langacre, Barnestaple, Combe Martyn, Freemington, South Moulton, Dertyngton and Blakebournbotty, the hundreds of Freemington and South Moulton, &c. Devon, and the manor of Tathbro, co. Cornwall, late of James Dauodelegh of Helegh, to the yearly value of 400L., the manors of Toryngton and Cokyngton, co. Devon, late of John Cary, forfeited to the king, to the yearly value of 200L., and the manor of Haselheare, co. Somerset, to the yearly value of 46L. 13s. 4d., in part satisfaction, viz., 1,300 marks, of the said yearly sum of 2,000 marks so granted to him and his heirs tail as above. By C.

The like to the same, assigning 700 marks, the residue of the said grant of 2,000 marks a year, from the petty custom yearly in the following ports, viz. London, 100 marks, Southampton, 200 marks; and Bristol, 100 marks.

Mandates in pursuance to the collectors of the petty custom in these ports.

Pardon to John Athereston, late captain of the castle of Poyl in the march of Picardy, so far only as concerns his life, for surrendering the castle without the king's warrant to the king's enemies. By p.s.

Remission, with the assent of the Council, to the mayor and citizens of Cork, of four years' arrears of their yearly farm, amounting to 86 marks, and of all part thereof falling due until Michaelmas, and also of all issues and amercements incurred by process out of the Exchequer for non-payment of the same; upon their petition alleging their almost complete destruction by frequent invasions of the Irish rebels, the burning of the suburbs of their city, the capture in war and impoverishment of many citizens loyal to the royal house, and the withdrawal of many to other places of abode, leaving the remainder unable to pay the said farm.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer in Ireland.

Presentation of Thomas de Kirkeby to the church of St. Gregory, Northampton, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of St. Andrew's, Northampton, being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Presentation of Alexander Beauno to the church of Neweton by Folkyngham in the diocese of Lincoln. By p.s. [4875A-]

Appointment, for life, during good behaviour, with the assent of the Council, of John Deynes of Colcestre, as one of the king's serjeants-at-arms, with the usual wages.

By K. & C.

Whereas the king lately granted licence to Alexander, then archbishop of York, to assign to the dean and chapter of York the advowson of Misterton, held of the king as parcel of the temporalities of the archbishopric, and to the dean and chapter to appropriate the said advowson for the maintenance of the fabric and lights of the cathedral church of York, and by virtue of the said licence the archbishop granted the said advowson to them, and afterwards by authority of the Pope assigned it to them for ten years from the time when the then rector of Misterton