should die or otherwise give up (dimitteret) the church, and whereas the said dean and chapter have petitioned the king that although on the decese of the said rector they entered thereon and took full possession, yet the archbishop, contrary to the aforesaid appropriation, has voluntarily made a collation or presentation of the said church to one Richard Wetewang, and instituted and inducted him, the king hereby ratifies and confirms the estate of the dean and chapter therein, by virtue of the said appropriation for ten years, notwithstanding the collation aforesaid, or the forfeiture of his temporalities incurred by the archbishop under the judgment rendered against him in the late Parliament, or the non-entry by the dean and chapter upon the said church at the date of the said forfeiture, or any other presentation thereof.

By K.

July 31. Insperimus and confirmation of letters patent dated 29 October, 38 Edward III, being a grant for life to Richard Forester of Staunton, at the yearly rent of 20L., of the custody of a moiety of two water-mills below Oxford castle, etc. as held by Reginald de Cobeham, knight, deceased.

By p.s., and for ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Membrane 26.

July 14. Appointment of William Dounebrugge, one of the barons of the Exchequer, to audit the accounts of the king's ministers in Devon, Cornwall, Somerset and Dorset, in respect of all manors, lands and tenements in those counties late of Robert, duke of Ireland, Robert Tresilian, Robert Bealknap, John Cary and John Blake, forfeited in the late Parliament, so long as they remain in the king's hands for that cause.

July 18. Grant to John Scrope of the treasurership of the cathedral church of St. Patrick, Dublin, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the archbishopric being in his hands through the late voidance. By p.s. mandates in pursuance to R. archbishop of Dublin, and the dean and chapter of St. Patrick's.

July 22. Whereas by inquisition before Henry de Popham, Thomas Illeston, Robert Hampton, escheater in the county of Southampton, and the sheriff of the said county, it is found that the convent of the abbey of Hide by Winchester, hold, and they and their predecessors from time immemorial have held, of their own portion separately from the portion of the abbot thereof, the manors of Suthese, Tytelescounbe, Heghton, Donegham, Wynderbourne, Abotts Annie, Fughlerton, Lekford, Worting, Oures, Bykleton, Preishawe, Broneeandevore, Nonhampton, Estratton, Aulton and Pudale Trenthide, the land of la Frylond, the meadow of Neweton by Wherewell, the rent of a pipe of wine issuing from lands called ' Lamere', and ' Preishawe,' the rents from Drayton, Hidebourneworthy, Tacehebury, Ludshulf and Rudbrig, and the rent from the prior of Lantoni, co.
Gloucester, besides divers rents and possessions within the city of Winchester and in the soke of Winchester, the king, at the urgent suit of John de Eynesham, now abbot of Hide, for the security and indemnity of the prior and convent, by the advice and assent of the Council, grants to the said abbot, prior and convent and their successors, that the premises and every parcel thereof, assigned for the maintenance and portion of the prior and convent, distinct from the abbot's portion, as a prebend, shall on all voidances of the abbey, when its temporalities are seized into the king's hands, be exempt from seizure, no escheater, sheriff or other