throughout Devon and Cornwall as far as Bruggewater, from the eve of Whitsunday last until Trinity following, and for a year from the last named date, he paying 500l. therefor within the next twelve days.

By bill of treasurer.

---

Membrane 24—cont.

Aug. 2. Oxford.

Grant to the sovereign and commonalty of Kenlys in Meath of murage for twenty years, as it lies in the March on every side near the Irish rebels. They are to account at the end of every year before some liege of the king, assigned ad hoc in Kenlys and nowhere else, for the moneys received under this grant.

By bill of treasurer.

Sept. 3. Westminster.

Grant, by mainprise of Thomas, bishop of Ely, Nicholas de Twyford, knight, goldsmith of London, Adam Baume, goldsmith of London, and John Stephens, to Richard, earl of Arundel, of the marriage of Robert son and heir of Richard, lord of Ponynges, tenant in chief, and of successive heirs if the said heir die, until the earl has the benefit of the marriage, rendering to the king therefor 500 marks.

By bill of treasurer.

Sept. 9. Cambridge. Licence for the sub-prioress and convent of Stodley by Bernewode, co. Oxford, of the order of St. Benedict, to elect a prioress in the room of Elizabeth Fremantell, deceased.

Sept. 10. Cambridge. Presentation of Geoffrey Wode, chaplain, to the church of Ashcle, in the diocese of Norwich.

Sept. 14. Cambridge. Presentation of John le Smyth of Waterden in the diocese of Norwich, chaplain, to the vicarage of Litelport in the diocese of Ely, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in his hands.

---

Membrane 23.

July 21. Westminster. Pardon, for 100l. paid at the Receipt of the Exchequer, to Hughlin Gerard of Bologna Grassa (Boloign' de Grace), merchant, of all trespasses and misprisions whereof he is accused before the king and council, viz. that after coming into England in the year 1 Richard II, he sent abroad gold and silver in plate and other forms; made divers exchanges within the realm without licence; betrayed the secrets and counsel of this realm to his master, a Frenchman at Paris; exported uncustomed wools and other merchandise, besides some customed in the name of Englishmen, in fraud of the king; imported pearls, jewels, kerrchiefs (flammeola) and silk cloths and, without paying custom for them, sold them; and also brought from Calais divers wools contrary to an ordinance of that town.

By K. & C.

Aug. 26. Westminster. Presentation of Philip Neuton, parson of St. Mildred's, Canterbury, to the church of Lydeford in the diocese of Exeter, on an exchange with Thomas Baret.

The like of Thomas Baret to St. Mildred's, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, being in his hands through voidance.

July 28. Westminster. Ratification of the estate of the king's clerk, Thomas de Middleton, as prebendary of Kirkeleghoton upon Brouneswold in the [cathedral] church of Lincoln.

By p.s.