May 11. Westminster. Pardon to Robert Reynold of Pritewell, for the death of Agnes his wife, killed on Friday before St. Andrew, 12 Richard II. By p.s.

May 14. Westminster. Grant, for the greater case of Thomas, archbishop of York, who has no lordships or towns belonging to his archbishopric near the city of London to lodge his household and horses in, to him, for his livery, of the towns and parishes of Hakeney and Leyton, with clause alumnus.

March 10. Westminster. Grant of passageway for one year to Simon Bynham, chaplain, John Bogeys, John Turnour, and John Tavener of Pokeryhe, in aid of repairing the highway from All Saints chapel, Pokeryhe, to the bridge called 'Lapdenbriggie.'

March 8. Westminster. Revocation of the ratification of the estate of David ap Waryng as portioner of Castell, Celwr, Groceyn, Delaewyn (sic) [and] Allthvellyng in Penthyn, in the diocese of St. Asaph.

March 8. Langley Manor. Grant to the king's servant William Coterell of the office of surveyor of all chases and warrens in parks late of Robert de Veer, duke of Ireland, in the counties of Cambridge and Essex, so long as they remain in the king's hands. By K.

March 29. Westminster. Revocation of protection with clause alumnus for one year, granted 15 February to John Burgoyne as going to Scotland on the king's service to stay with John de Stanley, warden of Berwick upon Tweed, because he tarries in London.

April 1. Westminster. The like of the like protection, granted 12 March to Robert Bailham as going with the said John.

April 14. Westminster. The like of the like, granted to Thomas Shirwynde of Pontefract as going to Scotland, because he tarries in Pontefract.

April 11. Westminster. Appointment of Matthew Bedeman and Thomas Umframvyll, knights, John de Mitford, Sampson Herdyng, Thomas Murtherby and Henry Byngfeld to survey from time to time all vessels called 'keels' used for measuring sea coal at Newcastle upon Tyne and the neighbourhood which should be of a certain size according to ancient custom, but which in wrong dimensions certain extortioners there for their private gain are using in selling coal to the deceit of the people, and to take order to amend or destroy all such vessels, punishing those who

April 11. Westminster. Presentation of Richard Penteys, chaplain, to the church of Denechirche in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, being in his hand.

March 6. Westminster. Appointment, by mainprise of John Peyto, knight, of the county of Warwick, and William Faryngdon, knight, of the county of Berks, of John Warle to the custody of the lands and tenements in Kent, late of Richard de Feversham, deceased (who held by knight service of the archbishop of Canterbury), during the minority of Joan, Katherine and Alice, his