1389.

Grant, for life or until further order, with the assent of the Council, to Henry Ferour of 67, a day from the issues of Surrey and Sussex; for his good service to the king's father and the king, on his surrender of letters patent dated 14 February last granting to him the office of smith in Windsor castle as granted by Edward III to Nicholas Smyth, such office not existing save by the late king's said grant.

By p.s.

Pardon to Walter Huntyton, goldsmith, for the death of Thomas Lane, 'coteller,' killed at Hereford on Monday before St. Nicholas, 11 Richard II.

By p.s.

Pardon, at the application of the earl of Northumberland, to William de Felton for the death of John Troute of Routhebury, killed on Sunday, 10 February, 10 Richard II.

By p.s. [5287.]

Appointment of Edmund Stokes, Walter Parker, and John Gordon, to take sufficient carters with carts, to carry timber of queen Anne from Chestunh to London, for repairing her houses there, and to set the men to work at her charges, with power to compel contrariants by imprisonment until they find security to serve.

Appointment of Thomas Beaupyne as collector of the subsidy on cloth in the counties of Bristol, Gloucester, Somerset, Dorset, Devon, and Cornwall, and to seal all cloth exposed there for sale: as granted in the Great Council at Westminster in the late reign, with power to search for and forfeit unsealed cloth exposed for sale.

By bill of treasurer.

The like of Thomas Godfray as collector in the county of Wilts.

By bill of treasurer.

The like of William Houghton of London, draper, as collector in London and the suburbs thereof and in Middlesex: with power to retain a moiety of forfeited cloth, delivering the other moiety to the sheriffs.

By bill of treasurer.

1390.

Presentation of John Tyngewyk to the church of St. Clement, Hastynges, in the diocese of Chichester.

Presentation of Robert Claydon to the church of St. Andrew Huberd in Estchepe, London.

Presentation of Robert de Wynyngton, king's clerk, to the church of Meth in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Cowyk being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire, Hubert de Florie, of the 'wode-wardship' of Little Salghall, co. Chester, as held by Reginald Hoker, king's esquire, deceased, by grant of the king's father.

By p.s.

Presentation of John Bertelot, vicar of Kirkelade in the diocese of Salisbury, to the church of Culnedenys in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Derchurst being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Walter Staward.

Appointment of the abbot of St. Benet Hulme, the prior of the church of the Holy Trinity, Norwich, the prior of Wynondham, the prior of Coggesford, Thomas de Morke, knight, William Gunthorp,