lately held by John de Appelby, one of the king’s esquires, and at his death demised for that sum to be paid yearly to the king and for 10l. to be paid yearly to John Parker of Gippswyk, for life; upon the surrender by the said Henry of (1) letters patent dated 25 January 34 Edward III, granting to him inter alia 12d. a day and (2) the king’s confirmation thereof dated 7 March, 1 Richard II. Henceforth he is to have, during life, 25s. surplus of the said 12d. a day from the clerk of the king’s works in the palace of Westminster and Tower of London, so long as those works last and from the Exchequer when they cease, and a winter robe every year at Christmas from the Great Wardrobe, of the suit of esquires of the household, or an equivalent sum. If the manors pass out of the king’s hand, the provision of the former grants revives.

By p.s.

Grant of pavage for three years to Thomas Willesdon, of Willesdon, Westminster.

Oct. 25.

Presentation of Thomas Faukes, vicar of Fremfield in the jurisdiction of the archbishop of Canterbury, to the church of Westudere in the diocese of Winchester, in the king’s gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of Thomas de Overton, tenant in chief; on an exchange with William Dalby.

Revocation of letters patent directing the arrest of persons who by inhibitions, citations, etc. are impugning the king’s presentation of Thomas Ferthyng, chaplain, to the church of St. Mildred, Canterbury, lately void.

Grant to Thomas Yokflete of the archdeaconry of Barkshyre in the cathedral church of Salisbury.

Westminster.

Mandates in pursuance to J. bishop of Salisbury and the dean and chapter.

Revocation, giving effect to a decision in Chancery, of the collation of William Malpas, chaplain, to the archdeaconry of Worcester, obtained by fraud after Master William Rocombe duly had possession thereof, as on summons by the sheriff of Worcester, through Thomas Lichefeld, Richard Maysmore, Robert Hayle, all of Worcester, and Thomas Swyneshed, clerk, the said William Malpas did not appear in Chancery to show cause against the revocation.

Pardon, at the supplication of the bishop of Aire (1yr). of the trespass and forfeiture incurred by the alienation in mortmain without licence, by Adam, late bishop of St. Davids, with the assent of the chapter of St. Davids, of the chapel or secular priory of Whitewell, of the yearly value of 10 marks, to William Elyot, master of the college of St. Mary by St. Davids’ cathedral church, lately founded by the king’s uncle John, duke of Lancaster, Blanche his wife and the said Adam, now deceased, and ratification of the estate of the master and his successors therein.

By p.s. and for 20l. paid in the hanaper.

Pardon to Robert de Ogle, knight, for having imprisoned John de Penwyke, knight, and his wife, and for taking the animals of William de Carnaby by distress for debt, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.