1389.
Nov. 8. Westminster.

Ratification of the estate of Richard de Yedyngham as parson of Westminster in the immediate jurisdiction of the archdeacon of Richmond.

By p.s.

Nov. 9. Westminster.

Demise, for an immediate payment of 60l. to William Bagot, knight, of the custody of the farm of a moiety of the manor of Kyngesnewton, co. Warwick, held at his death by Ralph Meignell, knight, tenant in chief, and in the king's hand by reason of the minority of his four daughters and heirs; which farm he is to receive by the hands of Thomas Sekyllond, controller of the Exchequer, who holds the moiety by the king's demise until the majority of the heirs, and to hold the same from Michaelmas last until the said majority, together with the marriage of the heirs.

By bill of treasurer.

Nov. 10. Westminster.

Grant, during good behaviour, to Thomas West of the county of Northampton, of the office of steward of the castle and honor of Berkhamstede, lately held by John Aylesbury, deceased.

By bill of treasurer.

Nov. 10. Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John de Cobeham of Kent, knight, to the master and chaplains of the college of Cobeham of the advowson of Tillebery, co. Essex, which is of their own patronage and is not held in chief, as found by inquisition of William Kymberley, escheator in that county.

Nov. 6. Westminster.

Grant, with the assent of the Council, during the minority of the heir, to the king's servants, John Halton and Adam atte Wode, of the custody of the lands and tenements, which have been concealed from the king, late of Godfrey de Fulgeam of the county of Nottingham, tenant in chief, to the value of 10l. a year, to each of them 100s. a year, on condition that they at their own labour and expense recover the same to the king's use, maintain the houses, buildings, woods, gardens and fences thereon, support all the real services and other burdens and account at the Exchequer for any surplus therefrom above the said sum of 10l. a year.

By p.s.

Commission to Henry de Percy, earl of Northumberland, and Ralph de Neville, justices of the forest of Gaultres, co. York, to enquire touching the destruction of deer in the laund enclosed therein for the king's sport, for fencing whereof certain oaks have been granted; upon information that the steward of the forest has recently obtained a holding of fourscore animals within the laund, this overburdening of animals resulting in the said destruction, as in addition there is a large number belonging to those who have common of pasture within the forest.

By p.s.

Nov. 24. Westminster.

The like to Arnald Savage, knight, William Makenad and William Elys of Canterbury, upon information that notwithstanding the grant to the prior and convent of Childerlangele by letters patent dated 2 October, 12 Richard II, of all the issues, rents and profits of the manors of Preston, Elmeston, Overlond, Wodelyng, Hamme, Westgate, Godenestone, Walterslate, Herietisham, Beaurepaire and Paemanston, co. Kent, in the king's hand on account of the forfeiture of Simon de Bureley, and especially of those issues in the hands of the reeves, bailiffs and farmers thereof from the date of forfeiture until 3 August last, yet divers of that county have seized and retain those issues, to the great loss of the prior and convent.

By p.s.