within a year, and if he does not, the lessor may re-enter the same, notwithstanding this indenture of lease.

For one mark paid in the hamaper.

Licence for Roger Bruys, chaplain, to pass beyond the sea to the Roman court to obtain a benefice, with cure or without. By p.s.

Grant, for $80$, paid to John de Hermesethorpe for the king's use by Nicholas Salesbury, clerk, to the said Nicholas, his heirs and assigns, in perpetuity, of two tofts, 29 acres of land and 6 acres of meadow in Little Merlawe and Cokeham, which were in the occupation of John Salesbury, knight, and of which John Welbourne and William Duke, chaplains, were enfeoffed to the use of the said John Salesbury; and further, ratification of the estate which the said Nicholas has in the manor of Little Merlawe, in the advowson of the priory of Little Merlawe, in the manor of Walton, in all lands in which he has an estate in fee simple and in four acres in Cokeham in which he has an estate for the life of queen Anne, as herein-after recited. The grant recites (1) that John Gaytford and Joan, his wife, by fine levied at Westminster before Robert Bealknap and the other justices of the Common Bench, acknowledged the right to the manor of Little Merlawe and advowson of the priory there to be Hugh de Cotyngham’s and released and quitclaimed the same to the said Hugh, John Pope and Nicholas Browe, clerk, and the heirs of Hugh in perpetuity, who 3 July, 6 Richard II, by deed enfeoffed Thomas Orgrave, clerk, Nicholas Salesbury, clerk, and John Salesbury the elder, merchant, thereof, and subsequently, viz. 5 June following, released and granted all their right in the premises to the said persons in perpetuity; (2) that the king is informed that the said Thomas Orgrave died long ago and that the said John Salesbury the elder, merchant, 29 May, 11 Richard II, released to the said Nicholas, in his seisin, all his interest in the premises; (3) that Thomas Geron, formerly vicar of Cokeham, being seised, in fee, of a third of the manor of Bradle, co. Berks, and fifteen acres of land and two of wood called ‘Maydenhedseld’ with appurtenances in Cokeham by feoffment of John May, did on Wednesday before Christmas, 3 Richard II, enfeoff at Cokeham Nicholas Whichebury, Nicholas Salesbury, clerk, and John Bradwell, clerk, of all his lands and tenements at Cokeham; moreover John May, being seised in fee of a messuage, eighteen acres of land, one acre of meadow and one acre of wood called ‘Terrieseld’ by deed enfeoffed the said last named persons of all his lands and tenements in Cokeham, and John Salesbury, knight, deceased, 16 June, 6 Richard II, enfeoffed Nicholas Salesbury, clerk, of the manor of Walton by Chebesey, co. Stafford, and by deed indented 5 June, 8 Richard II, granted to the said Nicholas four acres of land called ‘Wynterholl, parcel of the manor of Cokeham, which he lately had, to him and his heirs for the term of the life of queen Anne; and (4) that Thomas Orgrave and Nicholas Salesbury, clerks, with John Salesbury the elder, merchant, by deed indented demised, for a term of years now ended, to the said John Salesbury, knight, the said manor of Little Merlawe with the advowson aforesaid and all other lands and tenements aforesaid, except the said manor of Walton; and that by the forfeiture of the said John Salesbury, knight, under the ordinance of the Parliament of 11 Richard II, all the manors, lands and tenements belong to the king, the said Thomas Orgrave, Nicholas Salesbury, John Salesbury the elder, Nicholas Wychebury and John Bradwell holding the same to the use of the said John Salesbury, knight.

By p.s. [5710.]

Grant, for life or until further order, with the assent of the Council, to Simon Braem, late burgess of Ghent, of 20l. a year at the Exchequer, he