king, granting that sum to him, then yeoman of the king, for life or until further order, and letters patent dated 14 August, 43 Edward III, and their confirmation by the king, similarly granting to him 43s. 4d. a year from the issues of the manor of Bray, in lieu of the office of hayward and warrener thereof, which he had by grant of queen Philippa, also surrendered, as by ordinance of the Great Council the first named letters patent are and should be vacated by virtue of the subsequent grant aforesaid.

By p.s.

Presentation of Philip Dilesk, chaplain, to the church of Llannwryn in the diocese of St. Asaph, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in his hand.

Power, as heretofore granted to William, archbishop of Canterbury, for John, bishop of Hereford, his commissaries and ministers throughout his city and diocese, to arrest and imprison maintainers and preachers of conclusions contrary to sound doctrine and subversive of the Catholic faith, and further to search for, seize and produce before the Council, books, pamphlets, sheets and quires compiled both in English and Latin by Master John Wyclif, deceased, Master Nicholas Hereford, Master John Aston and John Purvey, and to make proclamation prohibiting the purchase or sale thereof or the maintenance or preaching of such opinions by any persons under pain of imprisonment and forfeiture of all they can forfeit.

Licence for the king's liege John Hood, chaplain, to pass beyond the sea to the Roman court to obtain benefices, with cure or without, in England, from the Pope, and to accept the same in person or by proctor.

By p.s.

The like for the following:—
William Godesday, chaplain.
William de Kantesden alias Oseburn, chaplain.
John Bastard.

By p.s.

Grant to Robert Bays of the hospital of St. Leonard, York.

By p.s.

Presentation of Hugh Lamberd, chaplain, to the vicarage of Twykenham in the diocese of London, void by the resignation of William Glastynbury, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Takele being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Licence for John Hereward to pass beyond the sea to the Roman court to obtain benefices from the Pope.

By p.s.

The like for the king's liege, John White, chaplain in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

By p.s.

The like for John Modeford, chaplain.

By p.s.

Inspeximus and confirmation to the minister and brethren of the house of the Holy Trinity, Modynden, co. Kent, of letters patent dated 1 November, 36 Edward III, being a licence for the alienation to them by Michael de Ponynges, knight, Richard de Cressevill, parson of Rolvenden, and Robert Botillere, of a moiety of an acre of land in Launsynge, co. Sussex, and the advowson of Launsynge, not held in chief, as found by inquisition of John de Tye, escheator, and for their appropriation thereof, for