

1389.

Membrane 20—cont.

master of the ship la Seinte Johan of Genoa, alleging that when they had laden her at Seville (Civiliam) in Spain with 115 tuns of oil, value 80*l.* 41 bales of wax, value 42*l.* 19 bales of cummin, value 80*l.* 6 bales of almonds, value 20*l.* 2 tuns of honey, value 15*l.* 72 bales of sugar, value 120*l.* 5 bales of tallow, value 20*l.* and 2,000 corks, value 7*l.* 10*s.* and were bound for Midelburgh, some soldiers and others of Calais in a barge of war and other vessels, at the instigation of Roger de Walden, treasurer of Calais, suddenly attacked their vessel at sea, took all her crew and brought them into Sandwich as pirates and king's enemies, and carried away all her cargo, for which the petitioners now claim damages, the said Antony claiming restitution of the ship and her freight, amounting to 2,300 francs (francorum), as well as 7*l.* found upon him, and clothing and furniture to the value of 25*l.* By K. & C.

Sept. 15. Licence for John Walrond, clerk, to pass beyond the sea from any port to Westminster. the Roman court to obtain benefices, with cure or without, in England, from the Pope, and to accept them in person or by proctor. By p.s.

Nov. 26. Grant to Ralph Stonore, a minor in the king's custody, son of Edmund Westminster. Stonore and brother and heir of John Stonore son of the said Edmund, of 40 marks a year for his maintenance from the time when the possessions of his inheritance came into the king's hand by the death of the said John until his majority, from the farm thereof. By p.s.

1390.

Jan. 14. Licence for John Spenser alias Burneby, chaplain, to pass beyond the sea Westminster. to the Roman court to obtain benefices, with cure or without, and to accept them in person or by proctor. By p.s.

Jan. 2. Presentation of John Fere, monk of the house of St. Michael in Woodstock Normandy, to the priory of Oteryngton, co. Devon, in the king's gift on Manor. account of the war with France. By p.s.

1389.

Nov. 29. Pardon to Henry Trygge of Dymmok for the death of William Stryk, Westminster. killed at Great Dymmok on Sunday before St. Luke, 6 Richard II. By p.s.

1390.

Jan. 15. Licence for the king's liege, John Smyth of Lynne, chaplain, to pass Westminster. beyond the sea to the Roman court, to obtain benefices, with cure or without, in England and accept them in person or by proctor. By p.s.

Jan. 14. The like for John Prodhomme, chaplain. Westminster.

Jan. 15. The like for the king's liege John Helmeslee, with the proviso that in the Westminster. said court he neither sue nor attempt aught against the king or his regality or the laws and customs of the kingdom of England. By p.s.

The like for John Bykeswell.

Jan. 14. The like for John Mungumory, chaplain, and William Ree, clerk. Westminster. By p.s.

Jan. 16. Pardon, at the supplication of the bishop of Aire, chancellor of Westminster. Aquitaine (episcopi Adurenc' et Sancte Aquitar'), to William Aumbreys son of Thomas Aumbreys for abetting the death of Thomas Hockele, killed at South Fambregge on Friday before St. Denis, 5 Richard II, and for stealing twenty 'hogastres,' value 30*s.* from the fold of John Herevest at Lachyndon, at night, on the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula 2 Richard II, and a bullock, value 10*s.* at Wodeham Ferrers at Midsummer 2 Richard II. By p.s.