MEMORANDUM 17—cont.

earl of Pembroke, in the king's hand by his minority, rendering therefor as much yearly farm as others were willing to render.

Grant, for life, to the king's servant, William Cotere, of the wardenship of the hospitals of the Holy Trinity and St. James, Donwiche, and St. John, Oreford, co. Suffolk.

MEMORANDUM 16.

Licence for the king's liege William Pokethorp, chaplain, to pass beyond the sea to the Roman court to obtain benefices, with sure or without, in England, and to accept the same in person or by proctor, provided that he sue for nothing against the king, his regality, or the laws, statutes or customs of the realm.

The like for the following chaplains:—

Thomas Martyn.
John Naymouye.

Presentation of Master Thomas Picton, prebendary of Landegwy in the collegiate church of Abbergwill in the diocese of St. Davids, to the church of Tyneby in the same diocese, on an exchange with Nicholas Besant.

Grant, by mainprise of Roger Elnham of Norfolk and John Morweli, sergeant at arms of the king, to John Venour of the custody of the body, together with the marriage of Margaret, daughter and heir of William Benyngton of Essex, tenant in chief, paying for the said marriage 20 marks at the Exchequer and finding sufficient maintenance for the said Margaret, he and his said mainpemors being by recognizance bound in the sum of 10 marks.

Licence for the king's liege Thomas Smyth, chaplain, to pass beyond the sea to the Roman court as above.

Presentation of William Godehale, prebendary of Avestons in the collegiate church of Langecheste in the diocese of Durham, to the church of Montgomery in the diocese of Hereford, on an exchange with Robert Cotum.

Grant, by mainprise of Hugh Spratt of London and Gilbert Magghield of London, to John Andrewe of the county of Pembroke in Wales, of the marriage of John son and heir of John Castlemartyn of the said county, in the king's custody, paying 100s, therefor at the Exchequer, his mainpemors being bound with him in the sum of 10s.

By bill of treasurer.

Pardon, at the supplication of Hugh Loutrel, knight, to Francis de Ber of Ghent for the death of Clays Gyllysson, 'Flemmyng,' killed at the 'Wolkey,' London, before Christmas 12 Richard II.

Pardon, at the supplication of the earl of Stafford, to John Passelew alias Paslegh of Waynden, indicted for killing John Neweman of Penystafford at that place on Michaelmas eve. 9 Richard II, and John Fader alias Handsom, 'laborer,' at Waynden on Monday before St. Mary Magdalene 7 Richard II, burying the body of the latter without view of the coroner of the county of Buckingham; indicted also, before William Barton, one of the coroners of the same county, on Saturday after Michaelmas 9 Richard II, for that on the previous Thursday he with a baselard struck the said Neweman in the head so that he died.