1390.

Feb. 18. Grant, for life, to Nicholas Faneconer of the mansion-house with garden within the king's mews whereof he is at present in possession. By p.s. Westminster.

Feb. 17. Grant, with the assent of the Great Council and for 200 marks to be paid at the Exchequer by Baldwin de Berford, to him and Idonia, his wife, their heirs and assigns, as from Michaelmas last, of thirty five messages, five shops and five sollars with all other lands, tenements and rents in the parish of St. Stephen, Colmanstrete, London, extended at 14l. 17s. 4d. late of Nicholas Brembre, knight, deceased, by whose forfeiture under the judgment against him in Parliament at Westminster 11 Richard II the premises came into the king's hands. By p.s. Westminster.

Feb. 19. Grant, for life or until further order, to Mary de Sancto Hillario of 20l. a year from the issues of the counties of Cambidge and Huntingdon, instead of at the Exchequer, as granted to her by letters patent of the late king dated 21 November, 34 Edward III, and the king's confirmation thereof dated 26 March, 1 Richard II, both now surrendered and cancelled. By p.s. Westminster.

Feb. 23. Appointment of Hugh Coulweyn to arrest and deliver to the sheriff of Cumberland all victuals sold and carried by the king's lieges to the king's enemies of Scotland contrary to proclamation, for which labour he is to have a moiety of such victuals. By bill of treasurer. Westminster.

Feb. 24. Presentation of John Asplion, parson of Craunfeld in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Baldok in the same diocese, on an exchange with John de Lincoln, king's clerk. Westminster.

Feb. 22. Grant, for life, to John Belle, clerk and of the household of the king's brother the earl of Huntingdon, the king's chamberlain, of the farm of the hundred of la Stane, co. Somerset, with the sheriff's turn and other profits belonging to the hundred, together with the bedelry of Stane, rendering yearly therefor 14l. at the Exchequer, others not having heretofore paid more than 18l. 6s. 8d.; provided that the hundred is not parcel of the farm of the county. By p.s. [6086.]

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to him the custody of the hundred under a certain form 15 September, 14 Richard II.

Feb. 18. Pardon, at the supplication of John Haddam, clerk, to Thomas atte Grene of Kerdynghton for abetting the death of Thomas Andrewse on Tuesday before St. Peter 7 Richard II. Westminster.

Grant, at the entreaty of the king's uncles, the dukes of Lancaster and Gloucester, his brother, the earl of Huntingdon, and his kinsman, the earl of Northumberland, upon the supplication of the abbot and convent of St. Albans, whereof the priory of Tymemouth is a cell, to the said abbot and prior and convent, of 500l. by sufficient assignment within two years, in aid of the repair of the said priory, which by its situation at the mouth of the Tyne has sustained such excessive destruction by the Scots that its great tower and gate and the greater part of its walls seawards are thrown down, so that the goods of neither abbey nor priory suffice for its repair, whilst it has been in time of war the castle and refuge of the whole country. By p.s. Westminster.
