1390.

Membrane 1—cont.

and Docton Alluph, which Matilda, late the wife of Thomas de Aldon, knight, lately held in dower, 120 acres of land and pasture and six of meadow in Wy and Broke lying severally at Aldon, Chelchebourne, Nacolte, Bronesford and elsewhere in those places, 36s. of rent and the rent of twelve cocks and hens, and eight quarters of barley (ordini palmalis) yearly from lands late of Hamo Baker, two quarters of barley yearly from Thomas Kemp for lands at Dablesbrigg, a messuage and a moiety of two cottages in Wy, Broke and Crundale, a messuage, 300 acres of land, pasture and wood called ‘Crokernefield’ in Eynesford, a messuage with a grange in the same place, 40s. of yearly rent from 39 acres of land, late of William atte Grove in Aldyngton, Herst and Bonynge, and 20s. of yearly rent receivable from John Symond for 29 acres of land and pasture in Aldyngton, co. Kent: the whole of the premises having lately been Robert Valknap’s, knight, by whose forfeiture they came into the king’s hands. [As above, 13 Richard II, Part I, Membrane 32.] By p.s. [6097.]

March 6.

Westminster.

Grant for life, to the king’s aunt Isabella, duchess of York, of the manor of Braxstede, co. Essex, to the value of 50l. a year, so long as it shall be in the king’s hand, on condition that she account at the Exchequer yearly for any surplus value.

By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to her 50l. a year for life from the farm which the prior of Coventry has to render yearly to the king for a moiety of that town, 29 November, 15 Richard II.

March 9.

Westminster.

Grant, with the assent of the Council, to queen Anne, that after the death of persons holding pensions and annuities issuing from her dower lands she may retain the said sums to her own use; upon her petition to the king, as certain of her Council were in doubt whether she could receive them.

By p.s.

1389.

Dec. 10.

Reading.

Grant to the king’s clerk, Robert de Skyyne, of the wardenship of the hospital of St. Ellen called ‘Braceford-pistle’, in the county of York.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 34d.

Nov. 5.

Westminster.

Commission to John Dautry, clerk, and Robert Kent, citizen of London, to enquire touching waste in the possessions in Essex and Kent of the church or house of Hornchurch, parcel of the house of Mont Joux (Moynnec) in Savoy, in the king’s hand for certain reasons.

Nov. 4.

Westminster.

Commission to Robert de Bekerton, the king’s serjeant at arms, to enquire touching the petition of John Shadworth, John Stathe, John Walworth, ‘vynter’, John Norwych, Thomas Welles and Thomas Newenton of London, merchants, Hermann Vynthorp and Aubrey (Alberdos) Clippynge, Hance merchants, alleging that when a certain vessel called a ‘egleship’ of Darbraght in Holand, whereof Doderic Wauterson is master, laden there by their attorneys with 14 pieces of tar (peris terre) of John Shadworth, 18 millstones (molaribus) of John Stathe, 9 barrels of soap (saponatis) of John Walworth, 5 pieces of wax (cerc), one fardel of canvas, two barrels of soap, one tun of wax (lini), four bales of almonds and two sacks of ‘pakthred’ of John Norwych, four barrels of soap of Thomas Welles, one ‘pak’ of ‘westvale’ of Thomas Newenton, ten blocks (massis) of copper, eighteen pieces of wax, three barrels of ‘greywerk’ and thirty bundles of iron of the said Hermann and Aubrey, was bound for London, it was driven by storm upon the coast of England near Recolver, and its