Membrane 14—cont.

1390.

'le Broungill,' the closes of Hesket, Nunclos and Thoughthaith in the forest of Ingelwode, granted to him at 60l. 10s. a year. By p.s. [Calendar of Patent Rolls, 3 Richard II, pp. 457, 461.]

May 12.

Grant to William Galandre, chaplain, of the prebend lately held by John Corbie in the king's free chapel of Westminster. By p.s. [6809.]

Exemplification, at the request of the burgesses of Dunstable, of letters patent dated 10 May, 40 Edward III, being an exemplification of the transcript of a foot of fine levied in the year 14 Henry III, between Richard, prior of Dunstable, plaintiff, and the burgesses of the town, deforciants.

May 19.

Grant, for life or until further order, to Nicholas Rynenettes of Polayn, of 20l. a year from the issues of the city of London and county of Middlesex. By p.s. [6828.]

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to him that sum therefrom for the life of Anne, his wife, 16 June, 18 Richard II.

May 24.

Grant, for their lives, as of the king's aims, to Thomas Fayrengode, chaplain, and Richard Holme, his fellow chaplain, of a piece of land in Walsoken, co. Norfolk, containing half an acre, held of John Colvyle, knight, and by him of Adam Clyfton, knight, of the hundred of Frebrigg, and by him of the king in chief, which William Dunyell, hermit, lately acquired of Richard Dobbs of Walsoken, without licence, wherein he built a hermitage in honor of the Trinity to pray for the soul of the king's father, the said land having been seized into the king's hand by John Rede, escheator in Norfolk, for the negligence of the said mesne lords; to hold for the said purpose and to pray for the good estate of the king, for the souls of his progenitors and others. By p.s.

May 26.

Grant, for life, with the assent of the Council, to Perrine Whetteneye, for good service to the queen, of 10l. a year from the issues and profits of the king's manor of Tidderley, co. Southampton. By p.s. [6844.]

June 3.

Mandate in pursuance to the farmers, keepers or other ministers of the said manor.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted that sum to Thomas Cluniversity and the said Perrine for their lives, in survivorship, 2 October, 16 Richard II.

May 27.

Grant, with the assent of the Council, to John de Hangart, merchant of Amiens (de Damens), who has promised to deliver to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer certain bonds made before the present truce with France, under which divers sums of money are due from the king's lieges to him and other French merchants, and forfeited on account of the war, some of which have been seized, of half the amount of all moneys recovered from the said lieges after the delivery aforesaid, or to his attorney showing these letters. By p.s. [6850.]

May 28.

Grant, for life or until further order, to Walter Gille, the king's palfreyman, for his gratuitous service from the king's infancy and in consideration of his old age, inability to serve longer, and having nothing to live upon, of 10 marks a year at the Exchequer. By p.s.

May 25.

Grant to Robert Sarclyf and John Belle of any concealed profits to the value of 6 marks a year from the manor of Stokke Coyllard, co. Dorset, between the time when Joan, daughter of John Walsh son of Roger