in the king's hand by reason of the judgment in Parliament against Michael de la Pole, late earl of Suffolk.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 1.

Licence for the warden and scholars of the college in the University of Oxford founded by William de Wykeham, bishop of Winchester, called 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre in Oxford,' consisting of a warden and seventy poor scholars, clerks, students in divers faculties, to acquire in mortmain priorities, cells, lands, tenements, rents and other possessions, temporal and spiritual, of religions and ecclesiastics, to the yearly value of 250 marks, notwithstanding the war with France or the king's possession or any statute to the contrary, free of all rents, farms, pensions, annuities or other payments due to the king.

By p.s.

Whereas William de Wykeham, bishop of Winchester, by licence of the king has granted to the warden and scholars of 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' in Oxford the advowsons of Abberbury and Stepulumdour, and to the warden and scholars of 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' in the soke of Winchester, the advowson of Downton, co. Wilts, all in mortmain and advowsons which he held as parcel of the bishopric, for which he is willing to make compensation to the bishopric; and whereas John de Burley and Agatha, his wife, lately held of the said bishop, as of his bishopric, a messuage and mill. 205 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow. 69 of pasture, 50 of wood and 40s. 6d. of rent in Eastmoen, which by fine levied in the late reign they granted to the said bishop in perpetuity: and whereas John de Bicobury lately held of the said bishop, as of his bishopric, a messuage, toft, mill, garden, carucate of land, four acres of meadow and four of wood in Drakenesford, whereof he has enfeoffed the said bishop; and whereas Hamelin de Matham similarly enfeoffed the said bishop of five messuages, one carucate of land, 30 acres of wood, 60 of heath and 20s. of rent in Eshere, held by him of the bishop, as of his bishopric; and whereas the said bishop, without licence had, enfeoffed Master John Campedel and William Norton, clerks, of the last named parcels in Eshere; the king pardons the trespasses aforesaid, remits the forfeiture incurred thereby and grants licence to the said Master John Campedel and William Norton to alienate in mortmain the premises last named to the bishop and his successors, in part compensation for the aforesaid advowsons; and also to Thomas Wortying, knight, and Isabella his wife, daughter and heir of Hugh de Sancto Johanne, knight, late lord of Basring, to alienate in mortmain the manor of Bemsted Sunt Cleres, co. Southampton, similarly held of the bishop as of his bishopric, to the bishop and his successors, in part compensation for the aforesaid advowsons.

By p.s.

June 12.
Westminster.

Imperium and confirmation of letters patent under the great seal of Ireland dated at Dublin, 1 November, 8 Richard II. test. Philip de Courtenay, the king's lieutenant in Ireland, being a grant and sale for 100 marks, by advice of the said lieutenant and others of the king's