Commission to James de Pykeryng, knight, sheriff of [the county of] York, John Godard, knight, William Gascoigne, John Woderoue, William Holm, William Hundegate and Hugh de Ardern, to enquire touching the petition of William Lokton and Mary his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas de Bolton, alleging that the said Thomas died seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Bolton, co. York, and other lands in Bolton and Yapome in the said county, which descended to the said Mary, as his daughter and heir, when she was a minor in the custody of John de Lokton and Agnes his wife, mother of the said Mary; that subsequently, by reason of the forfeiture of the said John de Lokton, a commission issued out of Chancery to Robert de Garton, clerk, and Richard Felyngley to enquire what lands the said John de Lokton was seised of at the time of his forfeiture, whereupon it was found that he was seised of the premises for the term of his life, as of dower in right of his wife Agnes, late the wife of the said Thomas, but that neither he nor the said Agnes had any other estate therein than by reason of the nurture (nutritus) of her, the said Mary.
