farms amount to a year is deducted from the payment of the 800 marks granted to the said Edward when advanced to the earldom, grants the premises with all their appurtenances to him, and also the said fee farm of Roteland and the farms of the forest as aforesaid as from 25 February, 13 Richard II, the date of his creation, and also chattels of fugitives and felons within the castle and county, so long as he holds them.

By p.s. [7130.]

Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to John Golafre, the king’s knight, and Philippa his wife, of 100 marks a year from Michaelmas next from the issues of the county of Wilts, instead of from the custom of woofs, hides and wool-fells in the port of Leanne as granted to them by letters patent now surrendered, because the king is informed that the said custom is insufficient for the payment of that and other annuities and charges, because on account of an ordinance lately made woofs, hides and wool-fells are not shipped in that port.

By p.s.

Robert Crull, clerk, executor of the will of William, lord Latimer, going on the king’s service to Ireland, has letters nominating Thomas de Percy, knights, and John Shadworth, citizen of London, his attorneys for one year.
Robert de Faryngton, clerk, received the attorneys until his return to England.

Robert Crull, parson of Stebenheth, going on the king’s service to Ireland, has letters nominating Laurence de Allerthorpe, canon of St. Paul’s, and John de Hermesdhorpe, clerk, his attorneys as above.
The said Robert de Faryngton received the attorneys.

Ratification of the estate of Jevan Lloyt as parson of Lanlechyt in the diocese of Bangor.

Grant, for life, to the king’s esquire Lambert Fermer, for good service to the king’s father as well as to the king, of 7½d. a day for his wages and 46s. 8d. a year for his robe, as well when he is within the household as when he is without, payable by the keeper of the Wardrobe.

By p.s.

Grant, for their lives, without rent, to Philip de Courtenay and Anne, his wife, of the manor of Dertemore with all the profits of the forest of Dertemore belonging to the manor, except the herbage, which the king’s knight, Richard Abberbury, holds for life; also the borough and manor of Bradenash with appurtenances, together with knights’ fees and advowsons, waifs and strafs (sic), fines of towns and all else belonging thereto, together with the reversion of the park, mills, fisheries, land, meadow and pasture in the manor of Bradenash, which William Corby and Agnes, his wife, hold for their lives; upon their surrender of late letters patent to the like effect, as the king’s ministers in those parts do not allow them to receive the profits arising from and pertaining to the said borough and manors without special mention being made of the same.

By p.s.

Licence for Henry Fitz Hugh, knight, to enclose and impark 200 acres of land of his own fee round his castle of Ravensawath, provided they are not within the bounds of the king’s forest.

By p.s.

Grant, for life, to John Doyes of Coleestre, that he be one of the king’s thirty serjeants-at-arms, receiving every year 12l. a day at the Exchequer, and a robe of the suit of king’s esquires, the late letters patent to the like effect not specifying whether that sum was to be received at the Exchequer or elsewhere, and the payment being in consequence delayed.

By p.s.