Inhibition directed to Henry Grey, knight, son and heir of Reginald de Grey, against attorning to Richard Talbot, son and heir of Gilbert Talbot or his officers or ministers, in respect of homage and services for the manor of Wilton, which homage and services were granted by the late king to Richard Talbot and Elizabeth, his wife, upon an exchange between that king and the said Richard and Elizabeth, who granted the manor of Hertfordingbury, co. Hertford, to the king in exchange for the hundred of Irchyeingfeld and the manor of Wormelowe granted by the king; because by letters patent dated 18 January, 26 Edward III, the late king revoked so much of the said grant as referred to the said homage and services, as it was found by charters of his progenitors to the said Richard’s ancestors that the manor of Wilton, by the name of ‘the castle and manor of Wilton,’ which are outside the said hundred in the land of Irchyeingfeld, were held of the king in chief, as of his Crown, by the service of one knight’s fee and a half, and not of the said hundred.
