1391.

Henry and Elizabeth, their ancestors and heirs, and others; the said rent issuing from two messuages, one carucate of land, seven acres of meadow and twelve of pasture in Blaceford Martel, belonging to them, the said Stephen and Avice, not held in chief, as found by inquisition taken before Thomas Daccombe, escheator in Dorset, with covenant for entry and distress on the premises if the rent be in arrear.

Nov. 15.
Westminster.

Licence for John de Stanley, knight, to be absent for twelve years from Ireland, and meanwhile to receive the rents, issues and profits of his manor of Blakecastel, co. Meath, and of all lands of which he has possession by reason of the custody of Margaret Husaye or otherwise, within Ireland, notwithstanding any ordinances against absentees. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 11.

Nov. 5.
Westminster.

Robert de Far [yngton], clerk, received the attorneys.

He has other letters nominating John Nosterfeld, clerk, and William Bolcham as above.

Nov. 6.
Westminster.

John de Karlell, the said chancellor, staying in Ireland, has letters nominating William de Karlell and John de Corkeby his attorneys in England for two years.

Robert de Far [yngton], clerk, received the attorneys.

Oct. 28.
Westminster.

Grant to Edward, earl of Rutland, that in case he die before his father, the duke of York, his executors, for the payment of his debts, shall receive at the Exchequer for two years after his death the residue of the 800 marks a year granted to him by letters patent dated 25 February, 13 Richard II, and 12 December last, which are recited. By p.s.

Nov. 4.
Westminster.

Licence, at the supplication of the abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester, and on mainprise of John Forstall, clerk, and William Bruyse of the county of Gloucester, for William Brut, monk of the abbey of G-loucester, now in the Roman court, to remain there until Midsummer upon the business of the abbot and abbey, and for both abbot and monk to make the necessary exchanges of money. By p.s.

Nov. 12.
Westminster.

Protection for one year for the Cistercian abbey and convent of Roche, and their possessions, including the church of Hayfeld, appropriated to them by grant of Edward II; on account of their good religious life (proper honestatem religionis predicte) and especially because the patronage is now in the king's hand by the death of the patron, Thomas de Clifford, knight, tenant in chief, and the minority of his heir.

Nov. 12.
Westminster.

Presentation of John de Haukeshed, chaplain, to the vicarage of St. Hilary by St. Michael's Mount, Cornwall.

Nov. 16.
Westminster.

John de Bohun, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating John Wycombe and John Wotton, chaplain, his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Nov. 16.
Westminster.

John de Burton, clerk, received the attorneys.