

1392.

Membrane 9—cont.

to alienate in frank almoin to the warden and scholars of the college called 'Seynte Marie College of Wynchestre' by Winchester, lately founded by William, bishop of Winchester, all the messuages, land and moieties aforesaid, and also three messuages, one mill, one virgate and 80 acres of land and a moiety of one messuage and one acre of land in Moenestok, not held in chief; and licence for the said William, bishop of Winchester, to alienate similarly to the same two messuages, one toft, three carucates of land, two acres of meadow, thirty-two acres of pasture, sixty-three of wood, 10*l.* of rent and the rent of one pound of cumin with appurtenances in Roppele, Sutton, Biketon, Drayton, Wynhale and Medestede, which he acquired in fee and which were previously held of him as of his bishopric, of which the temporalities are held of the king in chief; and licence for John Keten, Henry Durneford and John Campeden to alienate in like manner to the said warden and scholars one messuage, two virgates of land, five acres of meadow and 2*d.* of rent in Ichenestoke, co. Southampton, not held in chief, and also the reversion after the death of John Godewyn and Alice, his wife, of one messuage, two gardens, three stalls (scabella), twenty-seven acres, three roods of land, one acre of meadow and 6*s.* 10*d.* of rent in New Alresford, not held in chief.

By p.s.

May 25.
Stamford.

Licence for William de Wykeham, bishop of Winchester, Robert Cherlton, knight, John de Wykeham, parson of Crundale, William de Worston and William de Ryngebourn to grant, in frank almoin, the reversion of the manors of Burnham and Brene, co. Somerset, which Margaret, late the wife of Thomas de Grantson, knight, holds for life, to the warden and scholars of the same college.

By p.s.

May 25.
Stamford.

Licence for Nicholas Wykeham and John Campeden, clerks, to grant to William de Wykeham, bishop of Winchester, the manor of Lollyngdon, co. Berks, and for the said John to grant to him one messuage, four virgates of land, six acres of meadow and 30*s.* of rent in Harwell in the same county, and for Richard Abberbury and Gilbert Wace, knights, Richard Bruns and Nicholas Somerton to grant to him six messuages, one watermill, seven virgates, 151 acres of land, 75 acres 1 rood of meadow, 100 acres of pasture, 100 acres of wood and 10*l.* of rent in Crawele, Haylegh and Wytteneye, co. Oxford, and for the said Nicholas Wykeham and John to grant to him three messuages, one dovecote, one garden, two carucates of land, fifty acres of meadow and 2*s.* of rent in Wytteneye, Crudebrugge and Carsewelle in the same county, not held in chief; and for the said bishop to release, for himself and his heirs, to the said Nicholas Wykeham all his right in twelve acres of meadow and four acres of moor in Farnham, co. Surrey, which the said bishop and Nicholas acquired and hold jointly in fee, and for the said bishop to enfeoff the said Nicholas of one mill, one toft, four acres of land

MEMBRANE 8.

and one acre of meadow which he acquired in fee in the same place, which mill, toft, land, meadow and moor were previously held of the bishop of Winchester as part of his bishopric, the temporalities whereof are held of the king in chief; and licence for the said Nicholas, after seisin had of the premises so granted, to re-grant the same in frank almoin to the bishop and his successors in recompense for the advowsons of Abberbury, Stepulmorden and Dounton by the bishop granted in mortmain, after