

1392.

Membrane 8—cont.

licence had, to the warden and scholars of 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' by Winchester, when parcel of his bishopric; and for the said Richard Abberbury, Gilbert Wace, Richard Bruns and Nicholas Somerton to release to the said bishop and his successors all their right in the bailiwick and keepership of the said bishop's wood, chace and warren within his manor of Wytteneye, and for the said bishop and his successors to hold the premises in frank almoin. By p.s.

May 25.
Stamford.

Licence for the alienation in frank almoin of divers lands to the warden and scholars of 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' in Oxford as follows:—by William de Wykeham, bishop of Winchester, of a messuage and garden with appurtenances in the parish of St. Mary Magdalene without the Northgate, Oxford, and a messuage, two carucates of land and five acres of meadow in Wedon in la Vale, Herdewyke and Wengrave, co. Bucks, not held in chief, and a sollar with appurtenances situated over two shops, whereof one is the said college's, the other the prioress's of Litelmore in Oxford, held of the king as parcel of the town of Oxford; by the said bishop and John Campeden, clerk, of two messuages called 'Trillekesynnes,' three gardens adjoining, a messuage called 'Rosehalle' and a garden adjoining in the parish of St. Peter in the Bailey, Oxford, held as the preceding; by Nicholas Wykeham, clerk, and the said John Campeden, of a messuage called 'Vynehalle' in Oxford, similarly held; by the provost and scholars of the hall called 'Quenhalle' in Oxford, of a toft and a plot of land containing half an acre in the parish of St. Peter in the East, Oxford, similarly held; by John Morecote of Wodestoke of a messuage, two virgates of land and five acres of meadow in Heyford Waryn, not held in chief; also by the said bishop, Nicholas Wykeham and John Campeden, and Robert Faryngton and Thomas Eggesworth, of the reversion of a moiety of the manor of Dourton, co. Bucks, late of Cecily Turbervyll, not held in chief, which John Clynton, knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, hold for the life of the said Elizabeth of the inheritance of the said John de Campeden. By p.s.

May 28.
Stamford.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prioress and convent of St. Mary's, Chester, by Thomas de Blaken', parson of Eldresham, Robert de Rosungrene and Richard Spark, chaplains, of one messuage, two cottages and 25 acres of land in Chester and Claverton within the liberty of the city, held of the king in burgage, and 18 acres of land in Claverton, held of the king in socage; by Laurence de Dinton, knight, and the said Robert de Rosungrene, of three messuages, two cottages and 20s. of rent in the same city, held of the king in burgage, and 40 acres of land in Lache by Marleston, held of the king in socage; and by the said Robert and Richard Spark, of 44s. 8d. of rent in the same city, not held in chief, the premises being of the yearly value of 9l. 11s. 4d. besides the rent aforesaid, as found by inquisitions taken both by Thomas Maystreson, escheator in the county, and Gilbert Trussell, mayor of the city, of Chester, and escheator therein; in augmentation of the said house and in full satisfaction of the licence granted to them by letters patent dated 16 November, 7 Richard II, to acquire lands &c. to the yearly value of 20 marks.

May 29.
Stamford.

Licence, for 50 marks paid to the king by William Beauchamp, knight, Stephen de Hales, knight, Henry, parson of Fulmere, Simon Baret of Hecham and William Smethe, parson of Knapton, for the alienation in mortmain by them of the manor of Fletewell called 'Playsmanoir,' not held in chief, to the prior and convent of Bromehill, in aid of their maintenance.