

Membrane 2—cont.

1392.

June 20.
Nottingham.

Grant to the bailiffs and burgesses of Shrewsbury, in consideration of that town being near to Wales and in need of better fortification, of murage for four years from Midsummer next.

June 20.
Nottingham.

Licence, for 250 marks paid to the king by the abbess and convent of Deneye, for the alienation in mortmain to them by Philip de Tylneye, knight, John Ingaldisthorpe, knight, William Wynter, John de Brunne, William Makenade, Clement Spice, Walter Godard, John Braunston, Adam Walkereth, Arnald de Pynkeneye, clerk, William de Bergh, clerk, Richard Morys, clerk, and Richard Dunmowe, clerk, of the manor and advowson of Hyston, not held in chief, and by the said Philip, John Ingaldisthorpe, John de Brunne and Arnald de Pynkeneye, Simon Wyghton and William Fordham, clerk, of seven messuages and 5½ acres of land in Waterbeche and Deneye, held of the said abbess and convent; and for the latter to appropriate the said church of Hyston in mortmain.

Grant to John Thame, clerk-herbergeour of the household—to whom the king by letters patent lately granted the offices of marshal of the chief place of the Common Bench and Exchequer in Ireland, and who fears he will be impeached in respect thereof by Thomas, lord of Morlee, claiming to be interested therein, where the king and his progenitors, kings of England, have been for sixty years and more in uninterrupted possession of the gift of offices of this kind—that if the said Thomas or any other person sue him, the plea shall be heard and determined by the common law in England and nowhere else, and if he be amoved from those offices, he shall have due compensation.

By p.s.

June 20.
Nottingham

Licence, for 40 marks paid to the king by Henry de Knyveton, parson of Norbury, for the alienation in mortmain by him of one messuage, one shop, two acres and a half of land and two acres of meadow in Assheburn, Ofcote and Norbury, co. Derby, not held in chief, and 100s. of rent issuing from tenements in Coventre, co. Warwick, held of the king in burgage, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Mary in the parish church of Assheburn for the good estate of the said Henry and for his soul after death and the souls of his parents, Nicholas de Knyveton, his brother, John de Knyveton, his kinsman, his other relatives, friends and benefactors and others, and to do other works of piety according to his ordinance.

May 30.
Stamford.

Grant, for life, for good service to the king's father as well as to the king, to the king's esquire Richard Pontefrayt, for his reward (pro suo regardo), of 10*l.* a year from the issues of the counties of Bedford and Buckingham, on condition that the king is discharged of the payment of his wages of 7½*d.* a day in the household.

By p.s.

March 26.
Leeds Castle.

Grant, for life, without rent, to William Kyng, serjeant (serviens) of the larder, of a house with garden called 'le Vikeryesplace' with an acre of land called 'Kyngesacre' in Orpyngton, co. Kent, of the yearly value of 2*s.*

By p.s.

June 20.
Nottingham.

Appointment of the king's knight John Golofre to superintend (supervidend') in the king's name all yeomen of the household and others below that rank, whatever their estate or office, and to compel them, wherever throughout England or from elsewhere they happen in the retinue (comitiva) of the king to pass, ride or stay, to carry bows and arrows with them and practice archery; with power to punish contrariants at discretion. [Fædera.]

By K.