Licence, for 10s. paid to the king by Hugh, vicar of Stretton, John de Ryaskyngton, parson of a moiety of the church of Hodersette, John de Teuelby, clerk, and William Swycr of Roughton, for the alienation in mortmain by them of a cottage with appurtenances in Conyngesby, not held in chief, to Alan, parson of Conyngesby, and his successors for the habitation of a poor man called ‘belman’ and his successors holding that office there.

MEMBRANE 36.—cont.

Grant, reciting letters patent dated 16 July in the twelfth year, granting to the king’s brother John de Holand, earl of Huntingdon, and Elizabeth, his wife, in tail, 700 marks a year from the petty customs of London, Southampton and Bristol, of the castle and manor of Trematon and the manors of Calystok and Assheburgh, co. Cornwall, and Wynkle, co. Devon, to the value of 133L. 6s. 8d. a year, late of William Nevill, knight, deceased, the hundreds of Stane and Catteshash, co. Somerset, together with all the liberties and profits thereto belonging, and with the bodecles within the same to the value of 24L. a year, with the knights’ fees, advowsons, chases, parks, offices, mills, weirs, ferries, woods, warrens, fisheries, moors, marshes, meadows, pastures, fairs, markets, franchises, liberties, customs, wardships, marriages, reliefs, escheats, and services of free tenants and bondmen, from Easter last, to the said John and Elizabeth, in tail, to the value of 15L. 6s. 8d. a year, in part satisfaction of the grant aforesaid.

Licence, for 40s. paid to the king by the prior of Motesfonte, for the alienation in mortmain by Edmund Underclyve and William Patoneye, of three messuages in Romeseye; by William Pateneye, of two messuages and 15 acres of land in Romeseye and Langestoke; by Thomas Bruyn, chaplain, and the said William, of four messuages and 60 acres of land in Motesfonte; by William Endurby, of five messuages and 33 acres of land in Stokbriggs, Nethe Wallop, Brouke and Forde; and by the said Thomas Bruyn, of the reversion of 140 acres of land, 12 acres of meadow and 3 acres of wood in Kyngessomborne and Netherelden after the death of Robert Cholmele and Joan, his wife, to the said prior and convent of Motesfonte, in aid of their maintenance.

Licence, for 40l. paid to the king by the prior of St. Bartholomew’s by Smethfeld, London, for the alienation in mortmain by John Mirfeld and Robert Brian of three messuages in the parish of St. Andrew in the suburb of London and two parts of one messuage and two shops in the parish of St. Nicholas at the Shambles by Ivelane, London, held of the king in burgage as parcel of the said city, and of the reversion (1) of the third parts of the said messuage and shops after the death of Joan, late the wife of Simon atte Gate, and (2) of a messuage in the parish of St. Mary le Bow, London, and another in the parish of St. Sepulchre’s without Neugate, London, held of the king in burgage, after the death of Henry Godechepe, citizen of London, to the said prior and the convent there for maintaining certain charges as the said John and Robert shall order.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Robert Rowe of five messuages, one dovecote, 119 acres of land and 12 acres of marsh in Strode and Frendesbury, not held in chief, and of the yearly value of 4L. 18s. as found by inquisition taken by Richard Skipp, escheator in