Licence, for 10l. paid to the king by the master and scholars of the hall of the Annunciation of St. Mary in the University of Cambridge, for the alienation in mortmain by William Piecheale, clerk, and Henry de Tomston of a message in Fouledon, and by the said Henry and Walter de Harlyngge of the advowson of Great Mateshale, not held in chief, to the said master and scholars, in full satisfaction of a licence granted to them by the late king to acquire lands, tenements and rents, and also advowsons, to the yearly value of 40l.

Licence, for 40 marks paid to the king by the alderman, brethren and sisters of the gild of St. Mary at the bridge of Staunford, for the alienation in mortmain by John Broun of Staunford, John de Heton, parson of Benyfeld, John Bonde, parson of St. Mary's at the bridge of Staunford, and Reymund Knocker, chaplain, of fifteen messuages, four shops, three tofts and 27 acres of land in Staunford, not held in chief, to the said alderman, brethren and sisters, for the maintenance of certain chaplains to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Mary in that church, and to do other works of piety as the aliens shall order; and also for the alienation to them by the same persons of the reversion of two messuages in Staunford, similarly held, after the death of Emma, wife of Walter Wace, of two messuages therein after the death of Robert Barker, and of seven messuages and one shop therein, after the death of Elizabeth, wife of John Longe.

Pardon, for 40l. paid to the king by John Samon the elder, of Notyngham, to him for all extortions, trespasses, forfeitures and misprisions both in the purchase by himself or by his servants of woolls of short or excessive weight, and for all other the like offences for which punishment by imprisonments, fines, ransoms, amerceements or other pecuniary penalties is due by law and custom; and further, as he is more than 70 years of age, exemption of him for life from being put on assizes, juries or other inquisitions, and from being made justice of the peace or of gaol-delivery, sheriff, mayor, bailiff, collector of tenths, fifteenths or other subsidy, drawer, trier of men-at-arms or archers, or other officer of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

Licence, upon their petition and for 40 marks paid by them in the hanaper, for Robert Grethel, parson of one mediety of the church of Ekynton, Roger Darcy, parson of the other mediety, Robert Plumley and John Dolphyn of Ekynton, to found and establish a fraternity and gild in honour of Jesus Christ, the Virgin Mary and St. Cross at Ekynton and to choose every year from the brethren and sisters of the gild two wardens thereof to superintend, rule and duly govern the same; and licence for them to acquire in mortmain, lands, tenements and rents, not held in chief, to the yearly value of 100s. for finding a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said church for the good estate of the said Philip Darcy, knight, his wife and children, and the said petitioners, and for their souls after death, as well as for the good estate of the wardens, brethren and sisters, and for maintaining certain works of piety, as they shall order.

By K.

Licence, for 40s. paid to the king by the warden of the house of vicars of the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, for the alienation by William de Cave, Richard de Hornchby and Nicholas de Newerk, chaplains, of a message with appurtenances in York, held of the king in burgage, to the said warden and vicars for keeping the anniversary in the said church of Joan and Margaret, late wives of John de Beverley, their parents, and the said John's after death, as he shall order.