

Membrane 24—cont.

1392.

Sept. 27.
Oxford.

Licence, for 100s. paid to the king by the abbot and convent of St. Mary, Calder, for the alienation in mortmain by William de Bretby, Robert de Louthre, vicar of Wygton, and John de Hensyngham, chaplain, of six messuages, 142 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow, 2s. of rent and the rent of a pound of pepper, a moiety of 160 acres of pasture in Gilcrous, Seton, Bolton, Gosford and Hale, not held in chief, to the said abbot and convent for finding a taper (cereum) to burn daily before the high altar at high mass in the abbey church.

Sept. 28.
Oxford.

Whereas Henry le Swan, sometime citizen of London, by his will enrolled in the Husting bequeathed the houses inhabited by Laurence Albyn in Athelstrete in the ward of Bernard's Castle and held of the said Henry by way of pledge for 10*l.* to a chaplain of honest life for celebrating (sic) in the church of St. Benet in that ward for the soul of the said Henry and others named in his will, at the presentation of a man of the parish elected therefor by the whole parish by the counsel and assent of two or three trusty parishioners; and willed that that presentation should be made on Easter day in every year in the said church by one of the more lawful and fit parishioners, and that the said man should be yearly chosen by six of the more lawful parishioners for presenting and sustaining the said chaplain together with the chantry; and further willed and granted that the man so elected should hold the said houses a whole year, and so from year to year according to the election for maintaining the chantry, and receive 6*s.* 8*d.* for his labours and expenses every year on the day of election, and that the chaplain so elected should be removed every year at Easter, and another chosen in his place by the counsel and assent of six parishioners as aforesaid; in consideration of the good intention and devotion of the said Henry, the king pardons and remits the forfeiture of the houses and whatsoever pertains to him for that cause, and grants them to the parson and churchwardens of the said church and their successors, in aid of the support of a chaplain for celebrating morning mass and other divine services daily in that church for the souls aforesaid, as the said parson and wardens shall order. By p.s. and by fine of 20*l.*

Sept. 30.
Woodstock.

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's esquire Roger Crophull, to John Colyrogger for stealing a horse, value 13*s.* 4*d.* of John Hethener in Perth in the tithing of Perth, and also for breaking prison at Launston, co. Cornwall. By p.s. [8330.]

Oct. 2.
Woodstock
Manor.

Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to Thomas Clanevowe, esquire of the king, and Perrin Wytteneye, his wife, one of the damsels of the queen's chamber, of the 10*l.* a year from the manor of Tydderley, co. Southampton, which the king lately granted to her for life by letters patent now surrendered; with the consent of the said Perrin. By p.s.

*Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to them 20*l.* for their lives, and to the said Thomas 40 marks a year for his life from the fee farm of the castle and cantred of Buelt 12 August in his eighteenth year.*

Oct. 7.
Woodstock
Manor.

Presentation of Robert Medman to the church of Staunton Fitz Herbert in the diocese of Salisbury, void by the resignation of Robert Chiryngton and in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of Fulk Fitz Waryn, knight, tenant in chief.

Oct. 12.
Lincoln.

Grant of pontage for three years to the prior of St. Saviour's, Holand-brigge, of the order of Sempyngham, in aid of repairing the causey leading from St. Saviour's to Donyngton in Holand and the bridges thereof.