1393.

Membrane 10—cont.

dated 24 February in the sixteenth year, being a grant, for the term of the grantor's life, to John Cook and Margery, his wife, for the support of themselves and their children, of 24 francs a year, viz. 9 francs to be paid by the receiver of the keeper of the islands for the time being, and the remaining 15 francs from the "caumparts" of Aunvylle in the parish of St. Martin, Jersey, and if the latter sum should for any reason fail to be paid, the whole is to be paid to them by the said receiver; with proviso that if the said John die, and the said Margery marry, the payment to her shall cease and be made to the children, in aid of their support; with this addition by the king that he grants the premises as above for the term of the life of the said John.

By p.s. and for ¼ mark paid in the hanaper.

May 21. Westminster. Presentation of John Waldeby, chaplain, to the church of Blaby in the diocese of Lincoln.

May 20. Westminster. Pardon of outlawry to Thomas Ford, clerk, for not appearing before the justices of the Common Bench to pay Geoffrey Sampson and Richard Gascoigne 40l. recovered by them against him in that court, he having now surrendered to the Fleet prison, and paid the amount to them, as is certified by Robert de Chelton, chief justice.

May 21. Westminster. Licence, for 20s. paid by William Carmynowe to the king, for him to enclose a way in Boconck, 400 perches long and 27 feet wide, adjoining his house, leading from Lostwythell to Leskerid, on condition that in lieu of it he causes another of the same length and breadth to be made on his own ground as sufficient for travellers thereby.

June 20. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's servant John Longwyk of 4 marks a year from the manor of Bastyndene, as received by Robert Rys, deceased.

May 20. Westminster. Grant, for life or until further order, to Adam atte Wode, yeoman of the chamber, of 100s. a year at the Exchequer.

By p.s. [8859.]

May 14. Westminster. Grant to the abbot and convent of Waltham Holy Cross, on their petition alleging that no lord or great person, except kings and queens of England, has been accustomed to lodge or make any long stay in that abbey, that none such shall in future, against the will of the abbot and convent.

May 18. Westminster. Grant to the king's clerk, John Lyncolin, of the prebend in the cathedral church of Fernes lately held by John Carlyll, deceased.

Mandates in pursuance to Th. bishop of Fernes, and the dean and chapter.

May 11. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's serjeant-at-arms John Drax of 12l. a day for his office, from the issues of the county of York instead of at the Exchequer, as granted by letters patent dated 4 March in the fifteenth year, in fulfilment of others dated 9 October in the fifteenth year, now surrendered.

May 20. Westminster. Grant, for life, to Richard des Armes, chaplain, of the wardenship of the hospital of St. Laurence by Bristol, void by the resignation of Robert Bailly.