his order, protesting that he did so by royal authority, and delivering their bodies to the dogs and wild beasts; also for that the said John and the rest came on the following Friday morning to Dukmanton and stole the said Adam's two horses, value 13s. 4d. and 4s. 11d. in money, his coverlet, chaloun and two sheets, value 6s. 8d. and 10 ells of white woollen cloth, not fulled, value 5s. By p.s. [8821.]

The like, under the same date, to the said William, his servant.

Grant to Gregory Ballard and Thomas Walton, servants of the butlery, of 20l. from the moneys due to the king for the custody of the lands and tenements of Thomas, son of William le Boydel of the county of Chester, and for the marriage of the said Thomas. By p.s.

Presentation of Thomas Noreys to the church of Gatecoumbe in the isle of Wight and diocese of Winchester, in the king's gift by reason of the minority of Thomas Lisle, son and heir of Laurence Lisle. By p.s.

Grant to John Charleton of the wardenship of Trinity hospital, Brugge-north, void by the resignation of William Newton, chaplain. By p.s.

Signification to J. bishop of Lincoln, of the royal assent to the election of Philip de Reppyngdon, professor of theology, canon of St. Mary's de Pratis, Leicester, to be abbot thereof. By K.

Grant to the king's servant Thomas Sy of the goods and chattels, to the value of 100s. late of John Granfeld, a thief lately hanged at Bedford, provided that he account for any surplus value. By p.s. [8717.]

MEMBRANE 7.

Appointment, for life, of William atte Merssh, son of Stephen atte Merssh, with the consent of the said Stephen, who has surrendered the letters patent appointing him, dated 8 March in the first year, to be chief smith in the Tower and chief surveyor of all the works belonging to that office, both there and in all the king's castles this side Trent, receiving 8d. a day at the Exchequer, and a robe yearly, like his father, provided that he execute the office in person. By p.s.

 Whereas Robert Bealknap, knight, deceased, lately granted the manors (sic) of Sharstede by Rouchestre, a moiety of the manor of Lydesynge and other lands and tenements in Chetham and Woldham, whereof the said manor of Sharstede, except 20 acres of land therein, were held of the late king as of the honor of Crevecoer by knight service, and 8 acres as of the honor of Leybourne, and the residue of others, which honor of Crevecoer the queen consort of England holds for life, with remainder to the Crown, to the prior and convent of Rouchestre and their successors at the yearly rent of 22 marks, for finding a monk to celebrate divine service daily in their cathedral church according to the ordinance of the said Robert; and afterwards the said Robert released to the said prior and convent 2 marks of the said rent, and was seised of the premises in his demesne as of fee, until by forfeiture under the judgment against him in Parliament in the eleventh year the rent of 20 marks and all his possessions were seized into the king's hands as forfeited; and subsequently the king by letters patent granted the said rent to his clerk John Scarle, in fee, and the latter to William Makenade, Thomas Chiche of Balnerle, Thomas Brokhill,