MEMBRANE 35.

1393.

June 23.
Westminster.

Pardon of outlawry to Roger Leche for not appearing in the King's Bench to satisfy the king touching a ransom and Richard Brentyngby for trespasses contrary to the statute of purveyance (prorisoribus), he having now surrendered to the Marshalsea prison and paid the damages adjudged to the said Richard, as is certified by Walter Clopton, chief justice: on condition that he pay the ransom aforesaid. co. Derby.

June 25.
Windsor
Castle.

Pardon of outlawry to Richard de Stathum of the county of Derby at the suit of Avice le Massy on account of the death of her husband Henry Massy of Morley. By p.s.

June 23.
Westminster.

Pardon, at the supplication of John, duke of Lancaster, and the bishop of Salisbury, treasurer, to John, son of John le Clerke of Hawardyn, for the death of Richard de Coghull, killed on Monday after the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross in the fifteenth year. By p.s.

June 26.
Westminster.

Writ de intendendo for the abbot of Barlynges, duly appointed by John, bishop of Lincoln, his deputy for collecting the moiety of the tenth in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stowe last granted to the king by the clergy of the province of Canterbury: on testimony that divers ecclesiastics, religious as well as secular, refuse payment.

June 27.
Westminster.

Revocation, giving effect to a decision in Chancery, of the presentation of John de Lincoln to the prebend of Brampton in the cathedral church of Lincoln, obtained on his false suggestion that it was void: upon the petition of Master John Botlesham, and after the appearance in Chancery of the said John de Lincoln by Nicholas Hemyngford, his attorney, to show cause against the revocation, when summoned at the instance of the sheriff of Huntingdon, by John Dunhed and William Parker, and his showing none, and in accordance with the statute passed in the late reign [25 Edward III, Stat. 6, cap. 3].

June 27.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to Thomas Hatfeld, yeoman of the chamber, of the lands and tenements to the value of 6 marks 6s. 8d. a year, in the king's lordship of Netilbed lying between those of Ralph Stonore on the East and Thomas Barentyn on the West, and between those of the abbot of Dorchestre on the North and Thomas Restwold on the South, lately granted to John Salesbury, knight, deceased: if of greater value, he is to account for the surplus at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted the manor of Netilbed, co. Oxford, to him for life, 25 November in this year.

June 26.
Westminster.

Pardon to Nicholas Stafford, knight, of all insurrections, trespasses, misprisions, contempts, &c. except treasons, larcenies and rapes, whereof he is or may be indicted. By p.s.
