July 2. Westminster. Pardon to William Venour, citizen of London, for all treasons and felonies and of any consequent outlawry, and remission of all forfeiture incurred. By p.s.

July 3. Westminster. Pardon, at the supplication of the bishop of Durham, to Richard Cokon for the death of John Dughy of Blaketoft, killed at Saltmessen on Saturday before the feast of St. Thomas the Martyr in the sixteenth year. By p.s.

July 4. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's servant, John Frank, of 6d. a day from the issues of the county of Wilts, which he is to receive for his service and not for the custody of any bailiwick, but this is not to be a precedent.
By p.s.

July 6. Westminster. Licence, with the consent of the Council, for John, bishop of Annagh-down (tinahdalcn') in Ireland, to retain 200 archers [obtained] in England at wages agreed upon between him and them for employment in Ireland as long as he shall need them; upon his petition alleging that because of the malice and power of the king's enemies there he cannot stay in his bishopric or receive its revenues. By p.s.

July 8. Westminster. Confirmation, for 6s. 8d. paid in the hamaper by Thomas Mortemer, to him of letters patent of Reginald Grey, lord of Weyesford and of Ruthyn, granting to him the office of under-steward of the liberty of St. Edmund of Bury for three years from 3 July last, with power to execute the office by deputy.

July 5. Westminster. Pardon, at the supplication of the lord of Daere, to John Paldene for the death of Thomas Merbury, killed at Merbury on Saturday the eve of All Saints in the twelfth year. By p.s.

July 8. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's knight, Richard Stury, of the manor of Bollesover, co. Derby, together with the wardships, marriages, reliefs, escheats, forfeitures, quarries, mines, franchises and other profits pertaining thereto, without rendering aught therefor; upon his surrendering letters patent dated 20 February in the first year. By p.s.

Membrane 29.

July 2. Westminster. Inspeccimus and confirmation to the prior and brethren of the Augustinian priory of St. Mary ad Fontes, Elycheam, of letters patent of Henry, bishop of Norwich, dated at Norwich 1 October, 1392, and the confirmation of the same by Alexander, the prior, and the chapter of the cathedral church of Norwich, dated there 17 November following, being a license for the first-named prior and brethren to unite the vicarage of the parish church of Elycheam to their priory, and hold it so incorporated together with the parish church to their own uses for ever, Reginald, now vicar, to be the last. A competent sum, however, is to be distributed yearly among the poor parishioners by advice of the ordinary, in accordance with the statute lately made in Parliament.

By p.s. and for 10 marks paid in the hamaper.

July 10. Westminster. Presentation of the king's clerk, Nicholas Hemyngford, to the church of St. Euny (Emmyn) by Redruth in the diocese of Exeter.
