Presentation of Nicholas Spron, vicar of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields by Charryngcrosse, London, to the vicarage of Promehill in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbey of Guines being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange with John Larke.

Exemption, for life, in consideration of his great age, of John Clere of Lemyngton, co. Southampton, from being put on assizes, juries, attainds, inquisitions or recognitions, and from being made mayor, sheriff, esclusor, coroner, steward, constable, justice of the peace or of labourers, collector, taxor, assessor, supervisor or controller of tenths, fifteenths, subsidies, taxes, tallages or other imposts, arrayer, leader or trier of men at arms, hobelers or archers, or other officer of the king, against his will.

Grant to Thomas Snell of the archdeaconry of Glandelath in the cathedral church of Dublin, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the archbishopric being lately in his hand.

Licent for the prioress and convent of Berkyng to elect an abbess in the room of Maud de Monte Acento, deceased.

Licentimus and confirmation to the burgesses of New Borough of Medina of letters patent dated at Westminster, 8 May in the sixteenth year, being an exemplification of letters patent dated at Westminster, 29 February, 23 Edward III, inspecting and confirming a charter of Isabel de Fortibus, countess of Albemarde and Devon, and lady of the Island, confirming to the said burgesses divers liberties. [Calendar of Patent Rolls, 26 Edward III, Memorand 19.]

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's kinswoman lady de Mohun, to Isabel, wife of Edward Cowhurd, convicted of killing John Shephard of Lettele in 'Prioursfeld' in the hundred of Mannesbrug on Monday before St. Thomas the Apostle in the sixteenth year, and sentenced to be hanged, but reprieved because she alleged she was pregnant.

Grant to Nicholas Monketon and William Sandham, servants of the chamber, of the money due to the king for the escape from the king's prison of Aylsham, co. Buckingham, of David Walshman, fishmonger of Tame, Geoffrey Spencer, Henry Taunrer and John de Bretan, felons.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to them 20l. due to him for the escape therefrom of David Walshman, Geoffrey Spencer, Henry Taunrer and John de Bretan, felons, 17 February in his nineteenth year.
