March 4. Westminster. Grant to Ralph, lord de Newyll, to whom the king lately granted the keepership of the forests beyond Trent for his life to receive therefor 100 marks a year, which he cannot be paid by reason of divers grants by the king's progenitors and himself to divers persons of closes etc. within those forests, from which a great part of the issues have come, of the following yearly sums, viz. 100s. payable by the priors of Carlisle to the king for 55 acres of land in the land of Ellerton; 106s. 8d. payable by Richard Kirkebride and his heirs for the farm of the land of Braythwayt with the covert of Middlescog; 100s. payable by Mary de Stapelton and William, her son, during their lives, for the farm of Louthefele, Barroikfeld and Bremegill; and the same 100s. payable after their deaths from the said farm and 22l. from the profits of the farm of Plumpton, receivable by the said Ralph, in part payment of the said 100 marks a year, and the residue from other issues and profits of the said forests. By p.s.

March 4. Westminster. William Pylyde of Heneley, staying in England, has letters nominating James de Shulton and Roger de Morton his attorneys in Ireland for two years. The prior of Coventro received the attorneys by writ.

March 4. Westminster. Grant to the prior and convent of Friars Preachers, London,—to whom the king lately granted exemption from all taxes, assessments, tenths, fifteenths, subsidies, tallages and other charges granted to him by the clergy or commonalty of England that they and their successors shall for ever be wholly exempt from all such grants within the city of London and its suburbs. By p.s.

March 3. Westminster. Exemption of the burgesses of Colchester for three years from sending any of their number to the Parliaments of the king; in aid of their expenses in enclosing their town with a wall of stone and lime, provided that they finish the work in that time. By p.s.

March 5. Westminster. Pardon to Simon Penne, indicted before the jury in the county of Worcestershire for stealing a black horse,价值 60s. of William Lappol, 'ferreoir,' of Kydermystre on Wednesday before St. Luke in the sixteenth year. By p.s.

MEMBRAN 39.

Feb. 26. Westminster. Insipicimus and confirmation to M. here, kinswoman and heir of the grantee, and now tenant of the lands, and to her heirs, of a charter dated at Dunipace, 4 October, 29 Edward I, being a grant to John Carbonell and his heirs of free warren in their demesne lands of Newton, Ake-ton and Whele-tham, co. Suffolk, and Wykes, co. Essex. [Charter Roll, 29 Edward I., No. 8] For 10s. paid in the hampner.

1393, Aug. 21. Westminster. Pardon, for 10s., paid to the king by Ralph de Percy, knight, to him for acquiring in tail male from Henry de Percy, earl of Northumberland, and entering upon, without licence, the manor of Wharrampercy, co. York, and its advowson, and for acquiring in tail, from the said earl, the manor of Kirkleyvynngton, co York, held in chief, and grant that he may hold the premises as acquired.