
Pardon, for 20 marks paid to the king by the master and scholars of Clare Hall, Cambridge, to them for acquiring in mortmain the advowson of Wrauby, co. Cumberland, under a general request of Elizabeth, lady of Clare, in pursuance of a patent dated 30 November Edward III, verified, but without special licence for the appropriation in mortmain by them of a third of the said benefice, notwithstanding the ordinance requiring absentee holders of benefices in Ireland to pay two-thirds of the profits thereof to carry on the wars there.

By p.s.

March 10. Westminster.

Membrane 27—cont.

Exemption, for life, of Edmund Riverell, from being put upon assizes, juries, inquisitions, attainders or recognizances, and from being made mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, justice of the peace or other officers, arrayer of men-at-arms or archers, collector of teinds, tithe, or other subsidies, or minister of the king. By p.s.

March 10. Westminster.

Grant to the whole community of Newcastle upon Tyne of pontifical privilege to be taken by John Hirnyng and Nich. Parker, escheator.

March 8. Westminster.

Writ of certiorari, for John Boterell, depute by John Godmeston, sheriff of the king's works at the great hall in the palace of Westminster, to be hounourable.

March 8. Westminster.

Habeas corpus for Robert, archbishop of Dublin, in England or elsewhere, to receive the revenues of his see without being compelled to send men to Ireland for its defence, notwithstanding the statute of 18 Edward III.

By p.s.

March 5. Westminster.

Inquisition and confirmation to John II, archbishop, usher of queen Anne: (1) Ann's chamber of letters patent of queen Anne, 26 April in the fourteenth year, demising to him, for 30s. per annum, the good, crouping (capers), cabbish, stocks (ciparius) and fowle (pinni) in her park of Brydestoke and bailiwick of Guettynge, in the forest of Boulton; and (2) (in French), dated at queen Manor, 26 February in the sixteenth year, granting to the said John Parker, in lieu of the 10 marks he pays yearly to her for the keepership of her park of Brydestoke, a pension in her park of Havering atte Bourc, for the term of her life; which term the king hereby enlarges into the term of the said John's life.

By p.s. [9110.]

Pardon, at the supplication of the lady of Tryvet, to John Steward of Shutfenale alias John Clerk for the death of Richard le Vyse of Shutfenale, murdered there on the Sunday before Christmas in the sixteenth year.

By p.s. [9151.]