Membrane 9—cont.

Licence for John Whitte, parson of Stabenane in Ireland, to stay in the schools at Oxford for ten years and during that time receive the whole issues and profits of his benefices and possessions in that country, without paying a third for the maintenance of the wars there, notwithstanding the ordinance of Parliament; and pardon of any forfeiture incurred by his absence.

By p.s.

Membrane 8.

Pardon, at the supplication of Nicholas Bury, clerk, to John Norman the younger for the death of Richard Newhouse of Wythepole, killed there on Wednesday before St. Matthew in the eleventh year.

By p.s.

Pardon, reciting (1) a licence granted by the king to Hugh de Calvyley, knight, now deceased, to acquire from alien abbots and priors their possessions in England to the yearly value of 200l., under certain conditions; (2) the acquisition by him, in fee simple, from William de Bosyll, prior of the priory of St. Mary de Prato by Rouen, of the Benedictine order, of the manor of Stivyngeton, co. Berks, and the church of Stivyngeton, and its advowson, and the manor of Westbury, co. Wilts; (3) the confirmation to him by William, abbot of Bee Helwyn in Normandy, and the convent there, of the foregoing, without licence had of the king; (4) a licence by letters patent of the king in ignorance of the said prior and abbot's grants, to them to alienate the premises, viz. the manors to the value of 60l. a year, and the advowson to the value of 40l. a year, to the said Hugh, in fee simple, in part satisfaction of the aforesaid sum of 200l. a year;
(5) the grant by him of the premises to Thomas Chalumley, John de Briddlesmere and Richard Merser, chaplain, in fee, without licence had, and their possession thereof until his death—of all the trespasses aforesaid and of any forfeiture thereby incurred, and grant to the persons last named of the manors and advowson as acquired, and release and quitclaim alike to them, the executors of the said Hugh, and the tenants and occupiers of his lands, of all actions and demands in respect of the premises, and of the right of presentation to the church or priory of Stivyngeton. Further licence for them to grant the premises in fee to John, bishop of Salisbury, and Roger Walden, clerk, quit of all farms, rents, arrears, services, claims and demands.

By p.s.

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's clerk John de Lincoln, to William Shiperde of Leygham for the death of John, son of the said William, killed on Tuesday before Ascension day in the sixteenth year.

By p.s.

Presentation of Alan Mackymere, chaplain, to the vicarage of Corkemede; directed to P. bishop of Limerick.