

1394.

*Membrane 14d—cont.*Sept. 27.
Haverford.

Appointment of John Samford and John Pitman to arrest in Devon and Cornwall the ships necessary for the passage of Philip de Courtenay, going to Ireland on the king's service, and to take the mariners necessary for their equipment, at the charges of the said Phillip to be paid by either of themselves, excepting such ships as have been previously arrested for the expeditions of the king and the duke of Lancaster.

Oct. 22.
Westminster.

Appointment of John Armurer, mayor of the city of Chester, John Elyngeham, the king's serjeant-at-arms, Thomas More, mayor of Lyverpull, Hugh Bavent and Richard de Wynnynton to arrest in the Dee and Meresee a sufficient ship for the passage of the king's clerk Robert de Faryngton and others in his company going to Ireland on the king's service, and take as many mariners as are needful for its equipment, at the charges of the said Robert, to be paid by them. (Teste Edmund, duke of York, guardian of England.)

MEMBRANE 13d.

Sept. 6.
Newport.

Appointment of William Haukere, master of la Maudeleyn of Landaf, to arrest as many mariners as necessary for the manning (eskipamento) of his vessel at the king's charges to go to Ireland with the king, there to stay as long as necessary, with power to imprison contrariants.

Aug. 8.
Westminster.

Appointment of John Staple and John Elyngham, the king's serjeants-at-arms, to arrest and bring to Plymouth with all speed all ships of 30 tons burden and upwards in all ports from the mouth of the Thames to Berwick on Tweed, to be there by the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross to start on the king's service in the company of John, duke of Lancaster, for Gascony, with power &c. as above.

MEMBRANE 11d.

Sept. 23.
Haverford.

Appointment of the sheriff of Meriunith and Rees ap Griffuth, sheriff of Cardigan, to arrest and bring before the king and council Griffin ap Gruffri, Reginald ap Gruffri and Rees ap Vaghan ap Rees Vougham.

Aug. 30.
Hereford.

Writ of aid for Walter Beccles, messenger of the chamber, appointed to arrest and take, within liberties and without, except in the fee of the church, horses necessary for the despatch of the king's affairs in England, at the king's charges.

Oct. 23.
Westminster.

Appointment of George Felbrigg and John Brundale to arrest and bring before the Council William Bowyer, who on petitions exhibited in Chancery by certain lieges has been summoned by the king's writs to appear to answer for damages done to them, and has refused to obey, John Staverton and John Glemham, justices of the peace in Suffolk, having also testified in Chancery that he has been indicted before them for divers trespasses, extortions and oppressions. (Teste Edmund, duke of York, guardian of England.)

Aug. 17.
Witney.

Commission to John Colshull, steward of Cornwall, John Treweuf and John Power of Moushole, on the petition of the dean and canons of the king's free chapel of St. Berian in Cornwall, founded by king Athelstan and in the king's patronage, praying remedy for the loss of that king's charter, which with other muniments as well as their mansion-house (mansio) has been destroyed by a sudden fire—to enquire touching the first foundation of the said chapel, its lands, tenements, rents and possessions, liberties, franchises, privileges and immunities granted by that king or any of the king's progenitors.