1895.

1. John Adam, to embark 180 pilgrims in 'le Andrewe' of Bristol.

2. Thomas Bony, master of the barge of the king's brother the earl of Huntingdon, called 'la Marie' of Brest, to embark four score pilgrims.

3. Martin le Ferres, esquire, to embark 60 pilgrims in his own vessel.

4. John Maynard, mariner, to embark 100 pilgrims in 'la Katerine' of Salt Assh.

5. Presentation of John Isaak, chaplain, to the church of Shokbrok in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in his hand.

6. Licencc for Humphrey de Stafford and John Rodenay, knights, to pass to Santiago in the said John's newly built ship 'Katyrie' of Lyme, and to take 40 pilgrims with them, and bring them back to England, provided that they may lay folk in the king's friendship and take no gold or silver with them beyond their reasonable and necessary expenses.

May 5. Licencc, with the assent of the lords and commons of England in the last Parliament, for John Chaunde] to hold the treasurership of the cathedral church of Salisbury, with the prebend of Calne annexed, whether void by the death of the cardinal of Pisa or the resignation of the cardinal of Keti (lentyn). [Piedera.] By K. and by pet. of Parl.

The like for Thomas Mountagu to hold the deanery of Salisbury, whether void by the deaths of cardinals de Urchinis and de Malepelle or by the resignation of the cardinal of Florence or the consecration of Robert Braybrok as bishop of London, which pope Boniface IX has bestowed on him. [Piedera.] By K. and by pet. of Parl.

May 21. Pardon to John Wawan for the death of Thomas Bolton, killed on 29 November in the seventeenth year.

May 16. Grant, for life, to the king's servant John Pevence of the office of bailiff of the king's lordship of Hastyngrape and the keepership of the ferry of Bolwexhede by Hastynge, as held by John Raynold, deceased, by the late queen Anne's grant.

May 26. Grant to the king's clerk Henry Manpas of the prebend lately held by Henry Borage, deceased, in the collegiate church of St. Cross, Cridyton, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in his hand.

May 8. Presentation of William Assherugge to the church of Stifford in the diocese of London.

---

* Teste Regc.