Signification to the guardian of the spirituality of the bishopric of Salisbury of the royal assent to the election lately made in the conventual church of Wilton of Felicia Lavvington, nun of that house, as abbess.

Grant, by mainprise of Roger Tremayle of Devon and Richard Slade of Somerset, to William Bonevill, knight, of the custody of the lands and tenements late of John Meryet, knight, tenant in chief, during the minority of Elizabeth, his daughter and heir, together with her marriage, paying 80l. at the Exchequer on obtaining possession of the body of the said heir; if the value of the lands, &c. exceed 20s. a year, he is to account for the residue so long as he has the custody. By bill of treasurer.

Presentation of Master Robert Ravendale, parson of the parish church of St. Martin, Ludgate, London, to the church of Byfeld in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift on account of the war with France; on an exchange with William Norton. By p.s. [10295.]

Licence for William de Courtenay, archbishop of Canterbury, to erect the parish church of St. Mary, Maidenston, into a college, and to found the college of a master or warden and as many chaplains as he shall think fit, and to assign the advowson of the same and of the chapels annexed thereto to the said master and chaplains. [Monastic. VI. p. 1391.]

Exemption, for life, of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, too weak and aged to render further service, from attending in person any parliaments or councils of the king in future, on condition that he have by his letters patent proctors thereat to agree to what shall be ordained at the said parliaments.

Ratification of the estate of Walter Cook as prebendary of Milton Ecclesia in the cathedral church of Lincoln.

Ratification of the estate of John Neuton as parson of Aston Fluvmile in the diocese of Lincoln.

Pardon of outlawry to John Sampson the younger alias John, son of John Sampson, for not appearing before William Rykhill and other justices of assize in Devon to satisfy his ransoms on account of a disseisin of William Cole of Plymouth, of a tenement in Sutton Priour, of a disseisin of Roger Beauchamp of Boswyng, Plymouth, of a tenement in the same place, and also of a disseisin of John Asto and Joan, his wife, of tenements in Sutton Priour and Sutton Vantort, for which disseisins he was thrice outlawed; he having surrendered and paid the damages severally adjudged to the said persons, as is certified by the said William Rykhill; on condition, however, that he pay to the king the ransoms aforesaid.

Pardon—reciting that from time immemorial the priors of Kyne have appropriated the parish churches of Croft and Thorpe in the county and diocese of Lincoln, divers vicars holding certain portions therein and the priors being seised of the patronage thereof, and that the Pope, on account of the deterioration of their revenues had lately united and appropriated the vicarages to the said prior and his successors, and by his bulls granted that the prior and his successors should have the same, with all the revenues belonging thereto, and that after the death or resignation of the then vicar the prior should cause the vicarages to be served by canons of the priory or other fit chaplains, and reciting further that afterwards on