for the same purpose, of a yearly rent of 6 marks bequeathed by the said Thomas Romayn to Robert de Upton from a tenement in Corde-waynerst, London, for the life of Juliana, wife of the said Thomas Romayn, and at her death for the support of a chaplain celebrating divine service in the church of Lamblyth, which rent the said Robert by his charter granted to the said Juliana and her assigns, and she to John Osyer, chaplain, and his successors chaplains in the said church of Lamblyth, who have since received the same, without the king’s licence.
The king hereby pardons all the trespasses aforesaid and the forfeitures incurred.
By K. & C.

Dec. 2. Westminster.

Pardon, for 200 marks paid to the king by Thomas Sprot for the ratification of his estate in the archdeaconry of Meath, to him of all forfeitures, emoluments and profits belonging to the king because he did not continuously reside in Ireland between the feast of St. James the Apostle in the seventh year and Michaelmas last; and licence for him to remain in England for two years from that time and meanwhile receive the profits of his archdeaconry or any benefice annexed thereto, notwithstanding any statute or ordinance to the contrary.
