1396.
Revocation of protection with clause columnas for one year granted on 28 March last to John Basse alias Prentys, citizen and draper of London, because he tarries in London on his own affairs, as is certified by the sheriffs.

Presentation of Robert Salveyn, chaplain, to the vicarage of Reed in the diocese of Norwich.

April 21. Westminster.
Pardon to Robert, lord de Scales, son of Roger de Scalos, of trespasses and forfeitures incurred by his entering upon and receiving, without suing for the same by due process of law, a rent of 19s. 3d. in Rewenhale, co. Essex, from certain land; and tenements of Robert de Leynham of that place, who has since the death of the said Roger concealed the same, so that livery thereof was not sued for when the said Robert, son of Roger, after proof of age had livery of the manor of Haselyngfeld, co. Cambridge, held by his father of the Crown and extended by the escheator of that county at 10l. 6s. 8d. which manor by reason of the said trespass became reseizable into the king's hand; and livery thereof to the said Robert, son of Roger, together with the said rent and arrears from his father's death.

For 10l. paid in the hanaper. By p.s.

June 15. Westminster.
Pardon to Hermann Stokissh, 'Ducheman.' [As above, p. 709.] Renewed because sealed on 27 January last. By K.

Grant, for life, to the king's servant John de Bury, surgeon, of 20l. a year at the Exchequer for past and future service and for the wages he should receive from the king in the household. By p.s. 10167.

May 18. Westminster.
Ratification of the estate of John Symond as warden of the chapel of St. Edmund, Derteford. By p.s.

Grant, at the supplication of Thomas, earl marshal and earl of Nottingham, and for 10l. paid in the hanaper, that the prior of Sele, co. Sussex, a cell of the abbey of St. Florent in France, and his successors, be henceforth reputed denizen, without any payment at the Exchequer for the custody of the priory, but only 11 marks yearly to the abbot of Florent, as heretofore in time of peace, for which they are wholly discharged, so far as regards the king or his heirs, in time of war or of the schism.

Pardon to John de Melsinby for stealing on Wednesday the feast of St. John the Baptist in the eleventh year at Kyrekeby and Great Brightham in Cleveland two horses of the vicar of Kyrekeby and John Dykonson. By p.s. 10621.

Foundation of a chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel or house called 'le Charmel' in Skarleby, for the good estate of the king while living, for his soul after death and for the souls of the king's father and mother, the late queen Anne and others, as Thomas, archbishop of York, shall order; an information that several of the faithful, inspired with zeal, have been long (ab antiquo) accustomed to find a chaplain in the said chapel to celebrate divine service for the souls of all the faithful departed; and grant, with the assent of the