1396.

Council, to Robert de Neubert that he be chaplain thereof for life, and that he and his successors have, in aid of their support, 6 marks a year from the issues of the county of York, on condition that he and they serve it in person, and that the archbishop and his successors have full jurisdiction over him and them and in the said chapel, as over other chaplains and in other chantries of the king's patronage and foundation.

By p.s.

June 17.
Westminster.

Pardon to William Abyndon the elder for the death of Henry Coly, killed at Tibrugge in the suburb of Worcester on Wednesday before Ascension day in the eighteenth year.

By p.s.

March 31.
York.

Mandate to the king's justiciary in Ireland and the person supplying his place, and to his chancellor there to deliver the temporalities of the bishopric of Cork to Roger Ellesmere, provided thereto by the Pope, whose fealty the king has taken, and to whom he has restored the said temporalities. [Fideres.]

Writ de intendendo in pursuance to the tenants of the bishopric.

By K.

May 13.
Westminster.

Exemption, for life, of John Nywenham from being put on assizes, juries, attaints or recognitions, and from being made mayor, sheriff, bailiff, escheator, coroner, collector, trier of inquisitions, arrayer or leader of men at arms, hobelers or archers, collector of subsidies, tenths or fifteenths, justice of the peace or other officer or minister of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

June 5.
Westminster. Membrane 5.]

Appointment of the king's armourer Stephen atte Fryth. [As above, By p.s.

March 3.
Westminster.

Grant to Ralph Tendre and Thomas Mewé, yeomen of the chamber, of thirty dozens of broad cloth (panni tangi) and four dozens of boots (caligariun), forfeited to the king because put uncustomed in the port of Plynnuth aboard a vessel called la Katerine of Hoke, whereof John Aubry is master, and now in the hands of William Sholdham, the king's searcher there; on condition that they account with the king for any surplus value.

By p.s. [10410.]

March 30.
York.

Grant to John de Balyngharn, clerk, of the wardenship of the free chapel of St. James, Quenesburgh.

By p.s.

Membrane 2.

Confirmation of the demise for 24 years from Michaelmas, 1392, by the abbot and convent of St. Nicholas, Angers, to John Robesard, knight, of their priory in England of Kirkeby Monachorum, which is subject to their monastery, with all its rights and appurtenances, together with their manors of Wiloughton and Copston belonging to the chamber of the said abbot, as contained in an indenture made between them for a certain sum of money paid in hand; saving to the king his farms and all his rights in respect of the said manors and others therein contained not belonging to the said priory, and on condition that the said John maintain the divine services and other works of piety there established, sustain all buildings, gardens and woods belonging to the priory and other charges incumbent thereon, and pay the 10% a year which he is bound by the king's letters patent to pay to the king during the war with France.

By p.s.