1396.

Licence, at the supplication of Robert, bishop of Carlisle, for his free tenants and tenants at will in Cumberland, in consideration of the great destruction sustained by them from the king's enemies the Scots, for five years to cut down and fell, for their reasonable hearth-fuel of houndsbote and haybote, within the forest of Ingelwode, broom, heath, rushes and reeds, and to dig therein and take stone, clay and turf out of the forest to their homes as often as necessary.

By p.s. [10640.]

Licence, for half a mark paid to the king by William Robynson, one of the foresters of the forest of Ingelwode, for him to hold to him and his assigns, for the term of sixty years, three purpures containing two roods of land in Ernethwayt of the king's forest ground, at the yearly rent of 12l. for building houses for his habitation, it having been found by inquisition made by Robert de Louther, supplying the place of Ralph de Nevyll, keeper of the forest this side Trent, that it was not to the king’s damage, and that the purpures are of the yearly value of 9d.

Grant, for life, to Thomas Percy of 100 marks a year at the exchequer of Kermeryd out of the issues of South Wales, instead of at the exchequer of Carnarvan out of those of North Wales, as granted to him by letters patent of the king's father, now surrendered.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John, abbot of the Benedictine monastery of St. Mary, St. Pierre-sur-Dives, in the diocese of Sezè, of the house, manor or priory of Wolfrichston alias Wolfriston, co. Warwick, of the yearly value of 20l. and by the Benedictine abbot and convent of St. Mary, St. Sever, in the diocese of Coutances, of the house, manor or priory of Hagham, co. Lincoln, of the yearly value of 12 marks. to the Carthusian prior and convent of Coventry, in full satisfaction of a licence lately granted to them to acquire in mortmain advowsons of churches or possessions in England of alien religious to the yearly value of 50l.

For 15l. paid in the hanaper.

June 22. Westminster.

Pardon to Lettice, the wife of Roger Wythewell, of the execution of the judgment against her when lately indicted before Roger Elys and William Shirleyngam, sheriffs, and John Michell, coroner, of the city of London, for breaking by night and entering the shop of Ralph Whyte, draper, in the parish of St. Mary Wolchirch, Wallbrook ward, London, on Sunday before Christmas last and stealing two dozens of 'blew motle,' value 60s., sixteen yards of scarlet, value 8l., five yards of woollen cloth of green 'motle,' value 10s., and three yards of woollen cloth of 'murre,' value 10s., of which she was found guilty, and sentenced to death, but respite because pregnant.

By p.s. [10629.]

June 25. Westminster.

Licence, for 1 mark paid to the king by the master or warden of the hospital of the Holy Trinity, Walknoll, Newcastle on Tyne, for the alienation in mortmain by John Gaudes and Robert de Mnewyk, chaplains, of a messuage with appurtenances in Newcastle, held of the king in burgage, to the said master and the brethren of the hospital, and their successors, in aid of their maintenance.

Grant to Thomas, archbishop of York, chancellor, and Guy Mone, keeper of the privy seal, of the wardship of the lands and tenements in the king’s hand by reason of the idiocy of John, brother and heir of Ralph, brother and heir of John de Welyngton.

By K.

Presentation of John atte Welle, chaplain, to the church of St. Peter de la Grande by the Guildhall, Chichester, void by the resignation of Richard Bawer; directed to John de Lallyngton, dean of the cathedral church of the Holy Trinity, Chichester.